From Our President

Happy Holidays to the Bondurant Family,

We had a great year this year. It was our first meeting in San Antonio, Texas. This is a beautiful historic city. Most people know it as the home of the Alamo and a river walk.

The San Antonio River was discovered in 1535 by Alvar Nunez Cabeza de Vaca. On St. Anthony’s Day in 1691 the then Spanish governor, Los Rios, renamed the river from the First Nation’s name of Yanaguana to the San Antonio River in honor of Saint Anthony. It had been a very important travel route for the First Nation and Spanish as they traveled from the Gulf of Mexico. The Spanish built missions on the river and many others in San Antonio area. During our visiting weekend the missions were celebrating their recent honor from UNESCO (The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization), which has named five of them as a World Heritage Site. These five missions are the largest concentration of Spanish Colonial church buildings in North America. Some of the group took the opportunity to visit the missions during the weekend.

In the 2015 annual meeting on Saturday, the family history presentation was delivered by Michael Salzburg-Felts. Michael spoke and displayed pictures of his family and ancestors, giving us wonderful presentation on his Bundrant side of the family. He and Kevin also hosted and catered the meeting this year in their home. We thank both Michael and Kevin for sharing their home and taking their time to make this year’s meeting a success.

Now you can PAY/RENEW your membership with a credit card or electronic check!

An important thing that was passed at the 2015 meeting is the payment of our dues through Paypal and electronic check. I am very excited about this change – it has been in the works for years. I hope those members who have never joined because of the difficulty or inconvenience of mailing paper checks can now do so. BFA can accept bank checks directly from the bank, checks through the post or credit card payments through PayPal. If you are reading this as a PDF document, you may click anywhere in this paragraph to access the PayPal link to pay your dues with a credit card.

Now that we have multiple ways to paying dues, it is a wonderful time to renew or to give gift memberships to those who are not members, like children, grandchildren, brothers, sisters, even grandparents who would love to share their family lore. Contact Amy Sanders, our treasurer, through our website www.Bondurant-family.org, a private Facebook message, or by emailing her at amymws15@gmail.com if you have questions.

Happy New Year to all of the Bondurant family in 2016!

THE 2015 ANNUAL MEETING MINUTES
IN SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS
October 16-17, 2015

In the absence of our President, Ed Bondurant, Vice President Marcelle Hoffman opened the meeting at the Hilton Garden Inn. "Meet Your Kin" brought some new kinfolks and their memorabilia. Don and Joyce Bundrant of Argyle, TX, came with scans of his Bundrant ancestors, and their graveyard in Bell and Coryell Cos., TX. Pete and Judith Felts, parents of our host Michael Salzburg-Felts, came to meet these new relatives.

Jan Moses, Ruby Smith's son, had created a disk of views of the Génolhac, France, area which he had gleaned on the French version of Google. He made enough disks for each of us to have a copy, and during the evening we looked at the sites, and made comments on their significance.

Our meeting on Oct. 17th was held at the home of Michael and Kevin Salzburg-Felts. We were joined by Mary and Joseph Lambert, formerly of IL, who now live in San Antonio. Mary is the descendant of Maurice/Morris Hamilton and Mary Bondurant. Again Vice President Marcelle presided. Minutes of the 2014 meeting were read and approved, and the report of our Treasurer Amy Sanders was distributed to those attending. It will be published in the newsletter in December.

David Bondurant reported on the website, and after a discussion, he will investigate how we might collect dues and membership electronically. We voted to make this possible.

Mary B. Warren expressed her opinion that BFA should revert to one-year terms for officers, which we had when the Association was founded. She suggested that it be publicized in the newsletter and brought to a vote at the next meeting. If passed, those officers elected in 2017 would serve one-year terms, but could be reelected by the membership for successive terms.

Next year the BFA meeting will be held at or near Charlottesville, VA. Date may be either Oct. 14, or Oct. 21, 2016; Marcelle will investigate conflicts there with other activities, particularly Homecoming at U VA, or football games. The date should be selected by the time our next issue is to be published.

Michael Salzburg-Felts gave an interesting PowerPoint presentation on his ancestor William Henry Harrison Bundrant, born in 1841, Hawkins Co., TN, and died there. He served during the Civil War in the Confederate forces, and became the progenitor of a large family of children.

These officers were elected for the next two years:

- Marcelle Hoffman, President
- Michael Salzburg-Felts, Vice President
- Mary Bondurant Warren, Secretary
- Amy Sanders, Treasurer
- Eve B. Mayes, Newsletter Editor
- David W. Bondurant, Webmaster

At the end of the meeting we enjoyed a pleasant box lunch outside on the patio. We appreciate all of the hard work put into planning and catering this year's meeting by Michael and Kevin Salzburg-Felts. Fortunately our meeting concluded before San Antonio was flooded by Hurricane Patricia.

Mary Bondurant Warren, Secretary pro tempore

Comments from the Treasurer

Our 2016 meeting will be held in Virginia, location still to be determined.

Due to the sale of my home in Jefferson, GA, I have moved and settled in Melbourne, FL. Because of this move I had to move the BFA Treasury to a bank that I could access in Melbourne, so BFA funds were moved from the Athens, GA bank (First American Bank & Trust) to Regions Bank - no expenses were incurred with this move as I didn't order checks (will use online Bill Pay to send monies needed via checks).

Announcing

New Twigs on our Family Tree

Miss Trinity Lynn Schaffer was born Nov. 19, 2015, at the Summit Medical Center in Hermitage, Davidson County, TN, the daughter of Annaleece Marie Schaffer. She is the first great-granddaughter of BFA members Ron and Penny Wagner of Warner Robins, GA.

Great-grandpa Ron says he is researching the family of Capt. John Flood of the British Navy who settled in Buckingham County, Virginia. Ron's 3-great-grandparents are Mary (Polly) Bondurant (daughter of Dr. Joseph) and Joshua A. Flood. He would welcome hearing from any cousins working on this line - says he's retired, but stays busy. His contact info can be found in the membership list at the end of this issue.

Trinity Lynn Shaffer, held by her grandmother Elizabeth (nee Wagner) Schaffer Miller.

BFA member Sandra Hensley Kuhn has reached a brick wall in her search for the ancestry of her grandfather, John Thomas Bundren, who was born 1900 in Indiana. He married Florence Mildred Barnes in Indiana. They had six children who lived and one who died after her birth.

John was the son of James Bundren and Susan Owens. This family lived in TN and KY before settling in Indiana.

James was the son of Hiram Bondurant/ Bundren, who was born in 1818. She has found a paper on internet that says Hiram was the son of Francis "Frank" Bondurant (Bundren) & Elizabeth King, who had the following children:

1. Sarah Bondurant b. in 1785 in Henry Co. Va. or Rockingham Co. NC
2. Susanna Bondurant b. 1790
3. John Bondurant b. ca. 1791-95
4. Leander "Lee" Bondurant b. 1797
5. Mary Bondurant b. 1800
6. Phillip Bundren b. after 1800
7. Green Greenzill "Jack" Bondurant b. 1803 Bundren
8. Richard Bondurant (Bundren) b. 1806
9. Peter b. 1807 Rockingham Co. NC
10. Hiram Bondurant (Bundren) b. ca. 1818 in TN.

This Francis Bondurant was the son of Richard Bondurant & Cecelia Ann Hall. Sandra writes, "As you can tell I need help in this so I can write it all out so I will have it for my family. My email is dkuhn@rnetinc.net. Thank you."

Lucille Ferol Bondurant Welde, former Cushing, OK, resident, passed away on Wednesday, September 9, 2015 in Cypress, Texas, at almost 101 years. The daughter of the late John Newton Bondurant and Mary Lane Bondurant, Lucille was born on September 19, 1914 in Cushing where she was raised and educated, graduating from Cushing High School.

Lucille Ferol Bondurant
Welde

Lucille was united in marriage to Kenneth Welde on March 9, 1947 and the couple resided in Cushing. Kenneth passed away in 1989. Just before her 99th birthday, Lucille moved to Texas to be closer to her grandchildren.

Lucille had been a very active member of the First United Methodist Church. Prior to World War II women did not work in pipeline companies. She and five other ladies found themselves at Shell, designated as the very first pipeline women, working the switchboard and doing secretarial and clerical duties in a workplace only previously performed by men. She continued working in the oil industry until her retirement. She enjoyed visiting with friends, good food, a good game of cards or dominoes, and spending time with her family.

Survivors include two grandchildren, Charlotte Woodruff and her husband, Russell, and Kenneth A. Ryan and his wife, Angie; four great-grandchildren, Darrell Woodruff, Chase Woodruff, Joshua Ryan and his wife, Janie, and Shea Ryan; and one great-great-grandson, Steven Anthony Ryan and many other relatives and friends.

Lucille was preceded in death by her parents, husband and only son, John Henry Ryan. Funeral services will be Monday, September 14, 2015 at 2:30 P.M. in the Davis Memorial Chapel with Reverend Kathy Keithner officiating. A reception will be held prior to the services at 1:00 p.m. in the Floyd Family Center. Burial will follow in the Fairlawn Cemetery, Cushing, OK. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the First United Methodist Church, 930 S. Little, Cushing, Oklahoma 74023.

Kenneth Andrew
Bondurant

Kenneth Andrew Bondurant, 92, formerly of Cainsville, OK, died Saturday, October 3, 2015 at Bethany Care Center. He was born July 8, 1923, in Gilman City, Missouri, and passed away October 3, 2015 at Bethany Care Center. He was the son of Ross and Neima DeGraw Bondurant.

At a young age, Kenneth's family moved to Oklahoma where his dad worked at a refinery in Cushing, Oklahoma. After a few years they moved to Cainsville, Missouri, where his dad sold cars. His dad's interest in cars become very important to Kenneth, and he never lost interest in the cars of his youth. He loved to share memories of the different cars that were part of his growing-up.

On January 27, 1943, Kenneth was drafted into the United States Army. His basic training was taken in Texas. Upon completion of this training he requested to be sent to Europe to avoid the hot weather in Texas. His transfer from Texas took him to England where he was part of the D-Day invasion. His group didn't land on Omaha Beach until June 7 because of the heavy amount of men and materials being transported to the beach. He served his country as a light mortar crewman, and served in battles and campaign in Normandy, Northern France, Rhineland, and Central Europe. For his service he was awarded four campaign bronze stars, and the good Conduct Medal. On January 11, 1946 he was separated from the Army at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri.

Kenneth married Joanna Maple October 15, 1946, in Troy, Kansas. Soon after they were married, they purchased a home in Cainsville and lived there throughout their marriage. Until his retirement, he was self-employed in the trucking business and later he was an agent for Standard Oil. During their marriage Kenneth and Joanna collected several old cars, ranging from a Model A and Model T Fords, and Studebakers. In 1989 they won first place in the 1959-1961 Golden Hawk Class at the National Studebaker Show in Las Vegas, NV.

Kenneth was a caregiver. He looked after his mother until she passed in 1992, did errands for his sister-in-law, Audrey Gay Giegerich, and anyone who need a ride to the doctor or hospital he was always willing to help. He also enjoyed listening to country music. Kenneth attend the Methodist Church in Cainsville as long as his health permitted, and served as a Trustee.

Kenneth was preceded in death by his wife Joanna, parents, and a brother Doyle Wayne. Surviving family include 12 nieces and nephews, and dear friend Nadine Thompson. Kenneth will surely be missed by his many friends and family.

Services will be Thursday, October 8, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. at the Stoklasa Memorial Chapel, Cainsville with burial at the Zoar Cemetery, Cainsville, OK. Family visitation will be Wednesday night, October 7 from 7-8 p.m. Memorial gifts: Zoar Cemetery. Tributes maybe left at www.bethanymemorialchapel.com.

St. Joseph News-Press (MO) - October 5-6, 2015

Ellen Lamssies Bondurant was born June 7, 1925 in Flasher, ND, and died suddenly of a cardiovascular event Oct. 8th, 2015 at home in Pleasant Hill, OR. Her beloved son Ross, her grandson Christopher and his wife Christy were at her side.

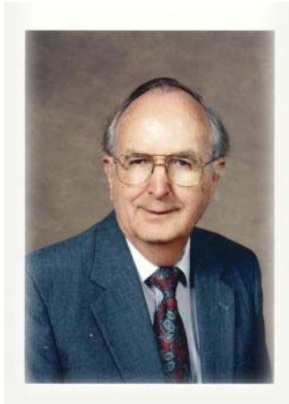

Although she was slowing down at age 90, she was independent until her death, driving, caring for herself and others, and blessed with mental sharpness. She was a pioneering spirit, social justice activist, artist, thrift store shopper extraordinaire, Symphony supporter, and steward of the earth's resources. She was involved at Central Presbyterian Church in the Sanctuary movement for Central American people in the 1980's.

She was preceded in death by her husband James Earle Bondurant, MD, and was a great mother to sons Jok, Mark, Ross, and Bruce. Grandchildren are Christopher, Ghabriell, Kaitlan and James Joseph. Close friends Daniel and Catherine and many others also deeply miss her.

Donations in her honor may be made to social justice or earth-preserving organizations.

The Register-Guard (Eugene, OR) - Sunday, October 25, 2015

Mason E. Bondurant, 91, of Little Rock died on November 9, 2015. Mason was born on April 18, 1924 in Ensley, Alabama, the son of Robert Lee and O'Dahlee Bondurant. His parents and his sister Bettye Strange preceded him in death. He was a graduate of Howard College (now Samford University) and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He married Margaret Montgomery in Hartselle, Alabama on June 4, 1946.

Mason E. Bondurant

He began preaching when he was fifteen and was ordained at nineteen. He loved to tell the story that he went to the Birmingham Jail to preach and that he had a captive audience. Mason and Margaret were in the Seminary together and their first churches were small ones in Oklahoma. Mason decided to join the Army when the Korean Conflict began. He served as a Chaplain and had a jeep that he drove along 50-100 miles of the front line to preach to any and all servicemen. One man had a deep need to be saved and wanted to be baptized. It was freezing weather but Mason knew this man was in desperate need of some feeling of safety. He baptized this man in an icy river. Before Mason left Korea he was given a General promotion to Captain.

When he returned from Korea he was assigned to Fort Chaffee in Arkansas. There he was presented The Bronze Star for his dedication to serving on the frontlines. He became pastor of Trinity Baptist Church in Fort Smith, his next church was First Baptist in Dumas, and his third pastorate in Arkansas was First Baptist Jacksonville. During this time he also remained a Chaplain in the Army Reserves, retiring as a Lt. Colonel. After over thirty years serving as a pastor, he and Margaret decided to become Foreign Missionaries. They were assigned to Venezuela but were unable to get Visas so they served first in Quito, Ecuador and then later in Maracaibo and Caracas in Venezuela. After being at home for a short time, they felt the call to serve again and went to Senegal, West Africa.

They came home again and Mason was interim pastor of many churches in central Arkansas. He and Margaret were a wonderful team. One church nick named them Barn Rat because the name is not an easy one. Another church gave him a plaque with a rabbit because during his sermons he would often tell a story that he called chasing rabbits. His last pastorate was an Immanuel Baptist mission, retiring at 85. He will be remembered fondly by many as the preacher in the cowboy hat.

He is survived by his loving wife Margaret, four children Paula (Steve) Melody of Fayetteville, John (Debbie) Bondurant of St Louis, Mo, Philip (Amanda) Bondurant of Fayetteville and Joanna (Steve) Wilson of Cabot, nine grandchildren Meredith (Andrew) Melody-Hubbell of Little Rock; Isaac (Jennifer) Bondurant of St. Louis, MO. Hannah Bondurant of Durham, N.C., and Daniel Bondurant of St Louis; Paul Bondurant of Fayetteville, Samuel Bondurant of College Station, TX, and Sarah Bondurant of Fayetteville; Alicia (Patrick) Birmingham of Jacksonville and Zak Wilson of Cabot; and seven great grandchildren Emma Kate and Evelyn Hubbell, Jonathan, Caleb, and David Bondurant, Ray and Meara Birmingham.

Funeral service was held at Immanuel Baptist Church in the Chapel at 2:00 P.M., Friday, November 13, 2015. Burial followed at Chapel Hill Memorial Park 1504 N JP Wright Loop Rd., Jacksonville, AR at 4:00 P.M. Family greeting will be at Roller-Chenal Funeral Home from 6:00 P.M. -8:00 P.M., Thursday, November 12, 2015. BUNDRANT OBITUARIES found in the newspaper archives from September 1, 2015 to January 1, 2016, from the subscription website www.genealogybank.com and elsewhere, compiled January 10, 2016 by EBM.

Algie Mae Hill Bundrant (June 7, 1919 – December 29, 2015)

Algie May Hill
Bundrant

Algie was born June 7, 1919 in Waynesboro, TN and went to be with her LORD and SAVIOR December 29, 2015 in Seattle, WA. She was the oldest child born to Charlie (deceased 1949) and Mary Hill (deceased 1971). Algie was followed by sister Greetus Hill Munn (deceased) husband Edmund (deceased) and niece Lisa (deceased).

Algie graduated from Waynesboro High School and attended a beautician school in Nashville, TN. She married Charles Lawson Bundrant of Waynesboro on November 23, 1940 (Mother often reminded all of us that they dated 7 years before getting married). Lawson worked for General Foods, of Memphis, TN from 1939 until he retired in 1970 in Evansville, Indiana. They moved from Evansville back to Waynesboro and built their retirement home on family property belonging to Algie. They called it Green Acres Farm, and Lawson wore his white shirt under his overalls on his tractor. Lawson and Algie had previously lived on the farm during the war as did their children Charles Hardin Bundrant (wife Diane) and Linda Jo (Bundrant) Nelson (husband Doug). They were the fifth generations to have lived on the farm property.

Algie, was a wife, homemaker, room mother and church worker. She worked in the nursery/children's department of their home church in Evansville (Grace Baptist) and also in Waynesboro at Green River Baptist. That experience helped with her five grandchildren, Joe (Mary Sue), Jill (Frank), Julie (Randy), Derek (Moni) and Krissie (Kory). Those five grandchildren blessed Algie with 18 great grandchildren: Analise (Tommy), Ali (Jeremy), Lawson Joseph, Noah, Levi Charles, Samuel Lawson, Taylor, Madison, Camden, Dominic, Charlie, Julianna, Isabella, Naomi Mae, Gage Lawson, Gus, Micah and Mackenzie. Two more announcements on Christmas eve and Christmas day 2015 would be great-great grandchildren and this made GRANNY SMILE BIG before she passed with family surrounding her.

Algie came to the Seattle area when Lawson went home to the LORD in April of 1993. However, she made many trips back to her home in Waynesboro to stay during the spring and summer months. Her last visit was in July, 2015, and she always loved "going home". The first fifteen years in Washington were spent with her children Chuck (Diane) and Linda (Doug) and grandchildren. Her last 6 years have been at Crista Assisted Living on the Crista Christian School Campus of pre-school – high school. She was blessed seeing many of her great-grandchildren on campus when they stopped by or during their basketball, soccer, track, volleyball, plays or programs. Granny always told everyone who would listen how many children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren she had and what they were doing. She made many friends in her assisted living where she attended church on Sunday morning and night. She attended a Friday morning Bible study that she was always prepared for, and studied during the week.

In the words of a few of her great grandchildren, "Granny is with JESUS and Granddaddy so she is happy now." SHE WILL BE MISSED.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to: Green River Baptist Church (Children's Building fund), P.O. Box 688, Waynesboro, TN 38485 or Crista Ministries, 19303 Fremont Ave North, Shoreline, WA 98133.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, January 9, 2016 at 3:00 PM at Green River Baptist Church in Waynesboro, Tennessee, with Cal Hampton officiating. A private interment will be Saturday morning in Waynesboro Memorial Gardens. A reception for family and friends will follow the memorial service.
