YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

How many organizations have you belonged to where it seems like the same four or five people always get the recognition?? Have you ever wondered why?

Look again – are those same four or five people always at meetings, working on organizational activities, doing something for the good of the group??

Here’s your chance to make a difference in YOUR Bondurant Family Association. You do not have to have been a member of BFA for a long time – we need some new “blood” (pardon the pun!) to share their expertise and ideas, help us continue to grow the organization, research new areas, meet new friends. How can we get in touch with Bondurant-Bundrant-Bundren-Bundrum-BonDurant (and all the other spellings) descendants to get them interested in learning more about their family history? Another important task is preserving the heritage we do know about, such as maintaining the gravesite of our immigrant ancestor Jean Pierre Bondurant and his wife Ann Tanner Bondurant in Virginia?

The officers and their duties (from the BFA bylaws) are given below – will your name be in the blank for the next term? See one that you’d like to try?? Let us know! Don’t wait to be asked!! Email your editor at ebmayes@windstream.net for more information.

Rebecca Katherine Bondurant Lynch (1920-2017)

Rebecca Katherine (Bondurant) Lynch passed away peacefully in her home, at the age of 97, on Saturday, June 3, 2017, in Alexandria, Va. She is survived by her children, Patricia (Dominique), Ruth (Donald), and Jack (Karen), along with 11 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her husband, Charles "Charlie" Vernon Lynch Sr. and her son, Charles "Chuck" Vernon Lynch Jr. Known as "Becky" to friends and "Nana" to many, she was born on April 25, 1920, in Damascus, Va. She grew up in Southwest Virginia and graduated from Emory & Henry College, where she met Charlie while studying to be an English teacher. After becoming engaged to be married, Charlie was deployed to the South Pacific in World War II as an officer in the United States Navy, and Becky decoded Japanese messages for the United States Army's Signal Intelligence Service in Arlington, Va. Upon his return on leave stateside (and the war ending), they wed on August 19, 1945, at the Methodist church in Abingdon, Va.

Charlie and Becky moved to the Annandale area in 1946 where they started a family and Charlie worked in the growing Lynch family real estate business, which soon included developing a good portion of the original family farm into the Pinecrest subdivision. In 1953, they built their own home on a picturesque Pinecrest lot at the corner of Elmdale Road and Old Columbia Pike, where they would raise their four children. By 1957, Charlie developed what remained of the family farm into Pinecrest Golf Center, one of the first public courses in Virginia.

With Charlie's siblings also having settling down around the family farm, a growing extended family and community involvement made for a fulfilling life in the Pinecrest area. They actively supported Annandale United Methodist Church, where Becky was a 71 year member and served on the Mission and Parsonage Committees for many years. She was also the last living charter member of the Annandale Woman's Club (federated in 1953).

Becky and Charlie also actively supported their alma mater, Emory & Henry, with yearly trips to homecoming always a top priority (Becky missing only two since graduating in 1941). Over the years, they gave liberally to E & H, which included contributing to academic scholarships as well as building and endowing "Lynch Links," a 9-hole golf course on campus.

His love of golf and her love of warm weather made spending the winter in South Florida a natural decision. With a beautiful view of the Atlantic and the inlet to Port Everglades in Ft. Lauderdale, their condo became a favorite spot for hosting many beloved family and friends for over 40 years. Even during her most recent trip in 2017, Becky enjoyed laughing with company on the balcony while watching the parade of cruise ships passing below. Having received loving care and support from her family, she definitely enjoyed her sunset years.

Becky cherished her relationships with God, her family, and her many longtime friends. Known for her gracious, nurturing, and generous manner, she was an incredible wife, mother, Nana, sister, Aunt, "neighborhood mom," and friend.

Family and friends will gather for visitation on Friday, June 16, 2017, from 5 until 8 p.m. at Demaine Funeral Home, 5308 Backlick Rd, Springfield, VA 22151. A memorial service and interment will be held at 10 a.m. on Saturday, June 17, 2017, at the Annandale United Methodist Church.

If you would like to give in memory of Mom, you may designate gifting to The Charles V. and Rebecca Bondurant Lynch Scholarship fund at Emory & Henry, which was set up in 1990 to honor Dad and Mom and helps provide worthy students with access to a quality, liberal arts education: www.ehc.edu/alumni-and-friends/giving/give/tw on the donation page, select "Other" under "Designation," and enter The Charles V. and Rebecca Bondurant Lynch Scholarship. We appreciate your love for our Mom and all her family.

Bristol Herald Courier (VA) - Sunday, June 11, 2017

Editor's Note: Becky and her brothers Jim and Jack were members of the Bondurant tour to Genolhac, France, in August 1993 to place the marker on the birthplace of Jean Pierre Bondurant. See BFA newsletters #18 and #20 in the newsletter archives on the BFA webpage - [www.bondurant-family.org - for more details about this landmark event.

Bond had a passion for the outdoors, instilled at an early age, hunting with his grandfather, father, uncles, brothers, cousins and nephews in duck blinds throughout the Mississippi flyway. While living in Thailand, he became a Dive Master/Instructor and his passion for exploring the ocean was shared with all his students. He loved Horseshoe Lake where he fished, boated and cooked for and with family and friends. A 4A All-State football player himself at MUS, Bond, like his Dad, was a passionate Alabama Crimson Tide football fan. He never missed a game even while living in Thailand. Roll Tide!

We will celebrate Bond’s life on Thursday, April 20, 2017 at 5:30pm in Memphis, Tennessee at the Brooks Museum with a reception following. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to the Church Health’s Training Kitchen (formally the Church Health Center) or The Boys and Girls Club of Memphis’ Technical Training Center.

Nona Bondurant Bowman (1932-2017)

Nona Clair Bondurant Bowman passed away peacefully and quickly on May 18, 2017, with her family by her side. After a fall in the lobby of the Mary Deal theater [Los Alamos, NM] on May 17, she apparently suffered a severe concussion and never regained consciousness. Her passing ended a two-year period of serious intermittent illnesses. Nona is survived by her husband, Charles Daniel Bowman; her son, David Carlton Bowman of Farmington, NM; and her daughter, Brenda Herbert with her husband Patrick Herbert of Raleigh, NC, and their children, Lindsey and Parker.

Nona was born Nona Clair Bondurant on Nov. 21, 1932, in Kirksville, Missouri, to Carl and Louise (Cardwell) Bondurant and was their only child. The family moved back to Virginia when she was five; she grew up in Roanoke, VA, and graduated from Radford College in 1955 with her degree in elementary education. Nona met Charlie in her senior year, and they married in 1956. They moved to Durham, NC, and she began her teaching career there while Charlie was in graduate school at Duke University. They lived there for five years where she did graduate work in the summers at Duke University and was offered the position of Elementary Education Supervisor for the Durham City School System. She was the first person to cross a picket line inside a department store to have her purchases checked by an African-American clerk, who, with tears in her eyes, thanked her. She also developed her lifelong love of ACC basketball and never missed a Duke home game.

When Charlie finished school, they decided that they wanted to see more of the world, and so they moved to Livermore, CA, in 1961. Nona continued her teaching in a segregated Hispanic school in Livermore, noting the admiration of Californians for those who traveled to the South in support of ending segregation there while ignoring it in their home town. She taught until the arrival of their children, Brenda and David, and found time for civic activity and teaching reading in her home. She also was a part time church secretary and helped to relaunch the United Methodist Church in Livermore. Biking and hiking became her favorite sports with Yosemite being her favorite spot for both. She was elected to the Livermore School Board in 1968 and played a key role in preventing the sprawl of the San Francisco Bay Area into the Livermore Valley and the inevitable school overload from unlimited development.

Family responsibilities for both Nona and Charlie in Virginia and a new job for Charlie took them to Gaithersburg, MD, in 1972. While raising her family she found time for part time teaching of remedial reading to employees of the National Institute of Health and the National Bureau of Standards, and later teaching reading in the Gaithersburg Public School System. She also found time to support the local school with fundraising by organizing the local horse shows. Tennis became her favorite support.

Charlie's career brought them to Los Alamos in 1982 with Brenda entering college, David entering high school, and Nona teaching reading in Larragoite school in Santa Fe. She was told by the school secretary on the first day, "I'm glad you're here but don't try to change anything." But her principal integrated her into a program with three other teachers, and this was one of her most rewarding experiences in teaching because the principal wanted to change a lot of things, and he succeeded.

The commute to Santa Fe was long, and so after about four years, she was hired into the Los Alamos Schools as a teacher of the gifted. The family had joined the Los Alamos United Church, and she partnered with another member to lead the church education program. She also joined the board of Casa Mesita and helped oversee its operation until state law forced the abandonment of such homes for teenage girls. Soon after came an appointment to the county's Art in Public Places Board that placed the sculpture garden around the pond and art in several other public spaces. This and other civic activity led to a successful run for County Council, where she served from 2002 to 2010. During her two terms she worked to clean up the town's neighborhoods, rebuild the county infrastructure, improve recreation opportunities, and strengthen the schools.

Nona traveled broadly with Charlie, including visits and vacations with her grandchildren, Lindsey and Parker. She visited her farm in Virginia throughout her life, transformed it into a delightful place, and considered it a reference point as she moved around the U.S. Nona enjoyed everywhere she lived, but she lived 35 years in Los Alamos and probably loved it the best, as this is where she wanted to be in her senior years. She had lived a full life and did not fear her passing. She left us quietly and is now in a better place. Her memorial service will be held at the United Church of Los Alamos on June 17 at 10:30 AM, with ashes interred at the Bethlehem Church of the Brethren Cemetery in Franklin County, VA.

George William BonDurant (1915-2017)

ELIZABETH CITY, NC - GeorgeWilliam BonDurant, 101, of 701 First Street, Elizabeth City, NC went home to be with his Heavenly Father on Tuesday, July 11, 2017. He was born in Pennsylvania, on August 9, 1915 to the late William Wilson BonDurant and Helen Lawrence BonDurant and grew up in Mt. Rainer, MD. He was married for sixty-six years to the late Sarah Presley BonDurant, whom he met and married while a student at the Cincinnati Bible Seminary. He is survived by his daughter, Beth BonDurant of the residence.

Mr. BonDurant was a leader in the Restoration Movement in the 20th century, a movement that saw believers and preachers from various denominational backgrounds seek unity by looking to the New Testament for guidance in matters of doctrine and spiritual disciplines. His parents were committed leaders in the Restoration Movement and instilled in him his faith in and commitment to the Word of God.

In 1947, Mr. BonDurant came to eastern North Carolina as an evangelist for the Roanoke District Churches of Christ. He quickly realized the need for a preacher-training school. To meet that need, Mr. and Mrs. BonDurant founded Roanoke Bible College (now Mid Atlantic Christian University) in 1948 and he served as the president until 1986. Students admired and respected him and affectionately referred to him as "Mr. B." He loved to teach and share his knowledge. For years he taught all week, preached every weekend, and taught extension classes or seminars in churches. He established a Christian camp for youth, Camp Roanoke, which operated for three weeks each summer on the college campus from 1953 to 1981. In his retirement years, he preached for a small rural church and had a prison ministry at the Maple Prison Unit, where his students knew him simply as "George".

A funeral service will be held Friday, July 14, 2017 at 11:00 a.m. at Towne South Church of Christ officiated by Minister Brad Giffin. The family will greet friends immediately following the service and at all other times at the residence. A service and burial will be held Sunday, July 16 at 2:00 p.m. at Pleasant Hill Christian Church, 35 Camp Dodd Road, Jasper, GA with burial to follow in the church cemetery. Memorial donations may be made to Towne South Church of Christ, 2224 Peartree Road, Elizabeth City, NC 27909 or George W. BonDurant Scholarship Fund, c/o MACU Foundation, 715 N. The limbs that move, the eyes that see,
These are not entirely me;
Dead men and women helped to shape
The mold which I do not escape;
The words I speak, my written line,
These are not uniquely mine.
For in my heart and in my will
Old ancestors are warring still,
Celt, Roman, Saxon, and all the dead
From whose rich blood my veins are fed,
In aspect, gesture, voices, tone,
Flesh of my flesh, bone of my bone;
In fields they tilled I plow the sod,
I walk the mountain paths they trod;
And round my daily steps arise
The good and bad of those I comprise.
