"It's Great to be a Bondurant!"

Jackie and I are extremely pleased to have been selected to serve as your Co-presidents for the next year. Maybe it's because it was easier to have another "David" as a President, I don't know, but whatever the reason we hope to represent our family with dignity and distinction.

We look forward and have already begun planning the Bondurant Family Association meeting here in Lexington, KY, for October 21-23, 2005. Although the University of KY football team will be playing in Lexington that weekend, Keeneland, our thoroughbred horse racing facility will also be in the midst of their Fall Meeting. In any event, if you've never been to Kentucky you are in for a treat. The Lexington Convention and Visitors Bureau will welcome us and provide almost anything we want in terms of sightseeing.

The Kentucky Historical Society's Executive Director is a family friend, and is helping put together an interesting and informative presentation on the Bondurant family, as it relates to Lexington, as a true crossroad on the way west.

Jackie and I certainly want to make this meeting the best yet. We will have more details in the near future, to be posted on the website, and published in the newsletter.

Thank you David and Judy for an excellent and productive term as BFA Co-Presidents. What a hard act to follow!

And we would be remiss if we didn't say we all owe Mary Bondurant Warren so much for her education to the Bondurant Family Association. Thanks, Mary, for all you do. Keep it up! We look to you for direction on where we're going as an Association.

THE BONDURANT FAMILY ASSOCIATION'S ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING

Friday, October 22, 2004, Sheraton Park South Hotel, Richmond (Midlothian), VA

Attending: 37 people attended the meeting including: Harry and Pat Green, Marilyn and Kenneth Cummings, William Schumm, Ruby Smith, David M. George, William Glover, Anita Keeton, Gail and Walter Wilkins, Irv and Ruth Bondurant, Nadine and Scott Wilson, Carolyn Cootes, Jim Bondurant, Carol Bondurant, Arlene Oedevir, Joan Dias, Kathryn McKinney, Susan Bondurant DuBois, Davis Bondurant, Patti Black, Becky Lunch, Ruth Lynch, Richard and Charlotte Cosby, Hix and Lil Bondurant, Ida Deaton, May Halie Bondurant, Jack Bondurant, David Bondurant, Mary Warren, and Sharon Kingen.

Call to order: The meeting was called to order at 8:05 by President David Bondurant. He noted that his wife Judy could not attend this year because she was caring for her ill mother.

Welcome: President David commented that the BFA was initiated about 20 years ago, and that we alternated meetings between Virginia and other locations of interest to the Bondurant family. He noted that each annual meeting included a brief business meeting.

At the request of the president, each attendee introduced him- or herself. These introductions also included special recognition of the passing of Ken Bondurant.

Secretary's Minutes: Secretary Sharon Kingen read the minutes of the 2003 BFA Annual meeting in CO. Mary Warren moved that the minutes be accepted as read, and Nadine Wilson seconded. The motion passed.

Treasurer's Report: Treasurer Jack Bondurant distributed copies of the financial report and noted that we have 180 members as of Sept. 1st. This is down about 14 from the previous year. He emphasized that we need to consider ways to increase the membership. He reported that we have had some unusual expenses this year, including the fee for the website and for scanning of back newsletters. The current amount in the treasury was $4,162.51. Nadine Wilson moved that the Treasurer's report be accepted, seconded by Irvin Bondurant. Motion passed.

Old Business: President David presented "2004 in Review" his report on the past year's activities. Thanks to Mary Warren we published 4 newsletters. We also established the BFA permanent website which is located at Bondurant-family.org. We also posted the complete archive of the BFA newsletters on the website so that they are available to all active members of the Association.

New Business: President David Bondurant stated that we needed to establish a position of Website Editor. David has been talking with Neil Bondurant about doing this job. He also noted that we needed to add new content to the website to tell the family story, including more pictures and information about Genolhac, additional Buckingham Co., VA, information, and details on the westward migration of the Bondurant family.

Election of Officers: President David reporting for Wayne Bondurant and members of the Nominating Committee, presented the following slate of officers:

David M. and Jackie Bondurant as Co-Presidents

Sharon Kingen as Secretary

Jack Bondurant as Treasurer

Mary Bondurant Warren as Newsletter Editor.

Although David and Jackie Bondurant were unable to attend because of a funeral, they had agreed to serve. There being no other slate presented, Ida Deaton moved to accept this slate of officers, seconded by Mary Warren. Motion passed.

Next Year's Annual Meeting: President David proposed that the BFA Annual Meeting be held next year about the 3rd weekend of October in Lexington, KY. He also showed some photographs of the area. This is where our newly elected Co-Presidents live. Sharon Kingen moved that the location proposal be accepted, Mary Warren seconded. Motion passed.

Program: Mary Warren distributed copies of the directions for the driving tour scheduled for the next day, and noted the times when various buildings would be open. She also answered questions about the plan. The tour route included Powhatan, Chesterfield, and Buckingham Cos., VA, about a 200 mile circuit on Saturday.

President David Bondurant reminded attendees about the buffet scheduled for the following evening at 7:30. Treasurer Jack Bondurant reviewed the reservations list.

Adjournment: The meeting adjourned about 9:20 p.m. Because the new Co-Presidents were not in attendance, no Executive Committee Meeting was held at the 2004 annual meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
Sharon Kingen, Secretary.

Charles V. (Chuck) Lynch, Jr., of Alexandria, VA, died unexpectedly earlier this year. We learned of his passing at the end of the annual meeting, and have no details to share with you. “TWELVE OAKS”

As part of our tour at the last Annual Meeting, many visited the Buckingham Co. Historical Museum across from the Buckingham Co. Court House. There Sharon Kingen, e-mail sakingen@hrtc.net, bought “The Courthouse Burned --” two volumes by Margaret A. Pennington (1986, page 76), which contain her drawings, and brief historical information on houses in Buckingham Co.

“The books contain Variety Shade and Col Alto as well as other homes associated with Bondurants, mainly Col. Thomas Moseley Bondurant and his children. However, there is another reference to Bondurants in a description of a place called Twelve Oaks,” wrote Ms. Kingen.

“Unfortunately there is no map in the book, and no other information as to the location of this place. Have you ever run across any reference to Twelve Oaks? If it was built by a Bondurant in 1776 in Buckingham County, wasn’t it most likely built by DR. JOSEPH BONDURANT?

If this place might possibly have links to the Bondurant family, would it be possible to contact someone in the area to seek it out and take photographs of it? It may turn out to be a worthless clue, but I’d hate to let the chance pass by and then too late find out that we missed the opportunity to at least take pictures of the place.”

This was its description –

TWELVE OAKS is thought to have been built in 1776 by a member of the Bondurant family. It got its name from the fact that there were twelve large oak trees on the lawn. The original part of the house had three stories, two rooms to a floor, and faced north. There was a porch across the second floor back which was bricked up to form a room beneath the porch. Hand-hewn beams and brick walls were distinctive characteristics of the basement. There was an office in the yard and an outside kitchen.

In 1811 according to an old plat John Jones bought [this house? and] 135 acres of land for his son William B. Jones. On a brick from the chimney the date 1812 was found so it is possible that some renovation was done at that time.

John Eldridge I lost his home by fire about 1870, and he bought Twelve Oaks. John Eldridge II inherited it from his father, and now Mrs. John Eldridge III represents the third generation of that family who have lived there.

A new wing two stories high has been built and the old part has had a face lift. The old porch has become the front porch and provides a lovely place for relaxation. The oak trees have suffered from age and the weather, but the lawn is still spacious and lovely.

At the east end of the porch are steps of lovely old brick. The brick came from a small chimney and fireplace built to heat a small room which was built under the porch for a traveling preacher. There was an outside entrance so that the preacher could enter without disturbing the family.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Good idea, Sharon! I've not seen the house, nor do I know its whereabouts.

Ruby Smith, are you familiar with its location, or history, since you've Buckingham roots?

We could probably attribute it to the right Bondurant builder if we knew its location, for Joseph's land was north and west of John's, and Peter's land grants were closer to the mouth of Slate River than land of his brothers.

AREN'T THERE ANY BIBLE RECORDS?

Where are the family records kept by our numerous Bondurant family, probably in their Bibles? Other families have lots of Bible records; why are those of the Bondurants so scarce?

We have published the only Bondurant Bible records we could obtain in earlier issues of this newsletter, which you can now see on the website. Please check, and if we don't have the family records of YOUR BRANCH OF THE BONDURANTS, please have them copied and send for inclusion. We've so many gaps and uncertainties which might be filled by Bible entries; don't let your family be the hole in the family tree!

HOMEMADE BOOK

Several who visited the Buckingham museum reported they had seen a book with the name WILLIAM F. BONDURANT on its cover. Ruby Smith, e-mail rubygem@aol.com, went by the museum the following week to check this out. Here is her report.

"There is a homemade book. The cover is made of layers of newspaper, thick enough to substitute for cardboard. The layers of newspaper are then covered with cloth. The pages are of good quality paper so they have held up very well. The book is hand-sewn.

Inside the book are tables, such as the multiplication tables, weights and measures, etc. There are examples of math problems, etc.

On the outside of the book in block print is the name of William F. Bondurant and the year 1826. The book was donated by Mrs. John T. St. Clair, 5005 Staunton Ave., Charleston, WV 25304. There is a slip of paper which says the book was made by Francis McCraw, and that William F. Bondurant was his pupil.

My guess is that he was WILLIAM FISHER BONDURANT.

The map mentioned is Cassell's 1865 map, a very good one, and much easier to read than most," concluded Ruby.

In an attached file, Ruby identified the pupil, and also the teacher's connection!

POLLY BONDURANT AND PRESLEY PEEK, JR.

It was our pleasure to meet William Schumm at our last meeting, and to learn from him about yet another branch of the family. "Thomas Bondurant and Margaret [Peggy] Drury of Boone Co., KY, had a daughter Polly that I have not seen listed in your past lineages. I believe that she has been overlooked because she was not listed in the settlement of Thomas' estate along with her siblings.

Why she was disinherited I do not know. But I am willing to hazard a guess: When she married Presley Peek, Jr. on 26 Nov. 1820, Thomas Bondurant did not stand the bond as he did for his other daughters' marriages. Therefore I'm speculating that perhaps he was on the outs with his daughter and had more or less disinherited her before she married. Presley's character was above reproach, so it probably was for reasons other than whom she chose to marry.

In 1822-1823 Presley and Polly migrated from Boone Co., KY to IL, settling in that part of Sangamon Co. that in 1839 became Christian Co., IL. Several years after that Samuel Wilson and Rebecca Bondurant's son, William Hugh Wilson, moved there to be with them.

A direct descendant of William Hugh Wilson wrote to me:

I understand that William Hugh Wilson came to Christian County [IL] from Boone Co., KY because his uncle Presley Peek had already located here. William bought land adjoining Presley. My grandfather Frank Wilson spoke often of his cousin Barnes Peek. The Peek house and the Wilson home were located only about 100 yards apart.

I have included a portion of the 1902 plat map of Christian County showing the Wilson and Peek farms. The Wilson farm is still held in the family.

Attached is the lineage of Presley and Polly. I am a direct descendant of them. All names, dates and places have been properly document," added Bill Schumm.

Presley Peek, Jr., born 21 March 1796 Hamilton Co., [then] Northwest Territory (Ohio), died 25 Aug. 1875 Christian Co., IL. He married 26 Nov. 1820 Boone Co., KY, POLLY BONDURANT, born 1796 VA, died between 1885-90 in Christian Co., IL. She was the daughter of Thomas Bondurant and Margaret Drury of Bedford Co., VA.

The Peek's two children were:

- A. Margaret Drury Peek born 1822 Boone Co., KY, died Christian Co., IL. She married 1st 19 April 1841 Christian Co., John Ralston. She married 2nd 22 May 1842 in Christian Co., Samuel Neil Williams by whom she had children:
1. Presley Edward Williams, born 9 May 1844, Taylorville, Christian Co., IL, died 22 Feb. 1923 Beardstown, Cass Co., IL. He married 1st 26 April 1866, Alice G. Coflin [sic], born 1848 IL, died 3 Aug. 1910 Taylorville. He married 2nd 15 Dec. 1874 Sarah Elizabeth Arnold born 18 March 1855, Browning, Linn Co., MO, died 5 Dec. 1935 Jacksonville, Morgan Co., IL.
 2. Margaret A. Williams (1849 - before 1855)
 3. Joseph Williams, born 1851
 4. Stephen A. Williams, born 1854, died 8 May 1938
 5. Polly Williams, born 1857, died 6 April 1944. On 20 Sept. 1892 she married Eugene Allard Bellmer who died 17 Feb. 1923
- B. Allen Barnes Peek born 27 July 1823 IL, died 28 July 1894 Christian Co., IL. On 7 Jan. 1847 he married Mary Ann E. Fry, (1829-1897) and had children:
1. Presley Peek (1848 - before 1860)

EDITOR'S NOTE: Bill, we hadn't overlooked Polly (possibly Mary) Bondurant. We're glad to add your information to the family tree. Slashes [/] denote conflicting information. As you can see, we lack birth places and death information on several of the children. If anyone can fill in these gaps, please do so!

JOSIAH BONDURANT AND EDY JOHNSON

Josiah was born in VA about 1755-59, signed a legislative petition in 1779 when he should have been at least 21, and in 1782 bought 207 ac. in Bedford Co., VA.

He appeared as one tithe on the tithe lists of Bedford Co., 1787-1789, and signed another petition there in Nov. 1789. He was not seen in the tax list in 1790, but signed a petition in 1791, and appeared again with the 207 acres from 1792-1797.

The first of Jan. 1798 he married Edy Johnson in Oglethorpe Co., GA and appeared there as "one white poll" in that county's 1798 tax digest. He may have received land from her family, for there is no deed to explain how he obtained the 60 acres and slave reported in 1799 tax digest of Oglethorpe Co., GA.

The will of Thomas Johnson, signed 5 Sept. 1803, recorded 13 Feb. 1805, Will Book A, p. 140, Oglethorpe Co., GA, left his daughter Edy BUNDRANT a slave boy Will and $200 worth of land at the death of Thomas' widow Penelope Johnson.

Josiah Bondurant appeared in the county's tax digests, and in the 1800 Census of Oglethorpe Co., the only one to survive in GA.

1 male 0 to 10 years of age - was this JOHN A. BONDURANT?

1 26-45

1 female 0 to 10 years of age - MARY BONDURANT

1 female 26-45.

1 slave (sex and age not reported)

Josiah left his Bedford Co., VA, property in the hands of my ancestor Littleberry Bondurant, when he went to Georgia. Littleberry reported Josiah's land, and paid the taxes for many years until it was sold by John Bondurant for Josiah Bondurant in 1817, and Edy relinquished her dower right.

In 1803 Josiah, a married man, enrolled for the 1805 GA Land Lottery.

In 1804 he bought 150 acres on Cloud's Creek from Joseph Elsberry; land joined John Johnston.

In 1805 he bought 60 acres from Hugh Freeman, Jr., on Cloud's Creek.

In 1806 Josiah sold 60 acres on Cloud's Creek to John Smith, and Edy relinquished her dower right.

Did not see Josiah listed in the 1807 Land Lottery Eligibles list for Oglethorpe Co.

In 1808 Reuben Johnson, Jr., sold land which adjoined Josiah Bondurant.

In 1815 Josiah sold the 150 acres to Morton Bledsoe on 21 Dec., and Bledsoe resold the land the following day to Robert Freeman.

Josiah was not found in the 1820 Census Index for Georgia. Was he out of the state?

Did Josiah and Edy move out of Oglethorpe Co., or did they die there? No estate records under any spelling appear in the county. Did they go to Walton County, and perhaps die there?

On 4 Feb. 1824 Josiah and Edy's daughter Mary BUNDRANT married Josiah Weatherford in Oglethorpe Co., GA. He died about 1840 in Walton Co., GA, leaving her with a number of children, probably born in Walton Co., GA:

A. Mary G. Weatherford

B. Thomas M. Weatherford

C. Martha Weatherford, born about 1826, married James Warren Davenport about 1842 Walton Co., GA

D. Francis M. Weatherford, born about 1830 married Laurency Sims 1 Sept. 1850

E. Josiah A. Weatherford, born about 1832

F. Catherine Weatherford, born about 1834

G. Permelia A. Weatherford, born about 1838

H. John W. Weatherford, born about 1840

"Whereas NANCY BUNDRANT, administratrix on the estate of JOHN A. BUNDRANT, dec'd, petitions this court for letters of dismissal on the said estate...." Walton Co., GA, March term of Inferior Court 1845, shows that John A. had died intestate a year or more earlier in Walton Co. By examining the Inferior Court sitting for Ordinary Purposes books, Nancy's petition to be named his administratrix would help fix the date of his death. Her annual returns as administratrix would show whether minor children were being supported by John's estate, and their names and sometimes ages.

Who was the father of JAMES B. BUNDRAN, born 3 May 1826 in Walton Co., GA. Was he Josiah and Edy's grandson, and the son of John A. Bondurant?

BAYLISS INFORMATION NEEDED

Mrs. Marilou Smith Ninowski, e-mail marilou1940@hotmail.com, found her great, great, great grandfather's family listed in the Bondurant-Bayliss-Jones Bible in the Library of Virginia catalog.

"I am certain they are the same because they have the same names, dates, with only a few minor differences. BRITAIN BAYLISS was the father of Thomas Bayliss, then [down to] William Joel Bayliss, Minnie Lou Bayliss Smith, William Joel Smith, [to] Marilou Smith Winowski.

Do you have any idea of the relationship between the Bondurants, Bayliss and Jones families, and why they would be in the same Bible record?

EDITOR'S NOTE: I wasn't able to help, but Sharon Kingen had this information in her GEDCOM: William Bayliss born 25 Dec. 1803, died 9 Jan. 1838 married Virginia Ann Bondurant on 21 Jan. 1830. Virginia was born 21 Aug. 1814, died 19 Oct. 1857. Their son Thomas Cullen Bayliss married Mary E. Cowaden.

Do any of you have data to share with Marilou (or us) on the descendants of William Bayliss and Virginia Ann Bondurant? We have none among our members (that we know of), or in the data base.

Virginia Ann was the child of Benjamin Bondurant and Sarah East (Sally) Moseley, and grandchild of Darby Bondurant and Ruth Agee. The Benjamin Bondurant family cemetery is in Weakley Co., TN. Were the Bayliss kin buried with them?

THE BONDURANTS OF GÉNOLHAC, FRANCE

by Mary Bondurant Warren

Following your suggestions, along with family history and “family trees,” are included photographs of the sites and documents relating to the family, maps, and even a driving tour of our most important places. With this hardbound 172 page book, you can be your own tour guide and see the sights in France at your leisure. If you want to see the places you’ll read about, get the two videos, BONDURANT HOMECOMING, and OUR FOREMOTHERS.

Jeff Duvall contributed “Our Ancient Ancestors” which takes us back 30 generations from Jean-Pierre to Charlemagne. We learn of French, Spanish and Neopolitan ancestors we didn’t know we had, and in the process a lot of French history.
