SAD NEWS ABOUT EDYTHE MAXEY CLARK

In a letter from her daughter Mrs. Debbie Cole, 430 West H St., Purcellville, VA 20132, we have learned that Edythe and Eugene Clark have had to give up their home. Both now have Alzheimer's disease. Edythe is confused in talking on the telephone, and can no longer write or answer mail, and both have gone into personal care facilities.

We are all indebted to Edythe for her years of labor, and the two volumes she published of THE MAXEYS OF VIRGINIA, which included so many Bondurants and their kin.

I'm sure Edythe would appreciate a cheery card. She is in Homewood Residence, Room 2207, 3910 Galen Court, Sun City Center, FL 33573.

TIME TO PAY YOUR DUES – or you'll miss the next BFA issue!

RADFORD UNIVERSITY HONORS THE LATE KEN BONDURANT

In a banquet ceremony during their annual “Partners in Excellence” banquet, last October, the Lifetime Achievement Award was accepted by his widow Carolee, parents Lillian and Hix Bondurant, and brother Bill Bondurant.

“As a partner in his family’s real estate business, [Ken] Bondurant demonstrated a genius for envisioning and executing new uses for old buildings, a talent that helped prevent downtown Radford [VA] from hollowing out like so many towns and cities of its size.

In 1997, he and his family donated the Norwood Center to the university, providing much needed art and educational space as well as a community center for cultural, civic and social events.

Bondurant served as a member of the RU Foundation Board of Directors from September 1982 until June 2004. He and his family created an endowed scholarship for artistically gifted students in the College of Visual and Performing Arts, and he contributed to the establishment and development of other educational programs sponsored by the Foundation. Bondurant passed away in June [2004].

BENJAMIN BONDURANT CEMETERY

David Holland, e-mail: bayonet96@yahoo.com, sent this informative letter.

“I am the conduit for info that may be relevant to your search. My wife, Claire Mabry Holland, is a direct descendant of Benjamin Bondurant as is her dear cousin, [Mrs.] Mary Thomas Burton (Mary Tom) Dennis who, although in her middle nineties is very active and has a sharp memory.

Mary Tom enlisted Claire and me, and later others, to help recover the Benjamin Bondurant graveyard near Dresden, TN. After a lot of work that was reported in this newsletter, the task was done with a fence around the cemetery, a gate, several headstones discovered and repaired and reset. There is also a new stone monument that gives some explanation about the cemetery. We have tried to get more help to keep this important cemetery in repair, but to no avail. All of us are getting up in years and we fear that the cemetery may fall back into disrepair unless we can get more interest in the place.

With that preamble, I can report that we found no BAYLISS in the Benjamin Bondurant Cemetery. Mary Tom and Claire, after looking back through the great academic work of the late Don Bondurant found that VIRGINIA ANN BONDURANT was the 9th child of BENJAMIN BONDURANT and SARAH EAST MOSELEY, who is buried next to her husband. Virginia Ann married first a Bayliss in 1830 and had one child. She married 2nd a Jones and is buried in the Jones Cemetery near Salem, TN....

Mary Tom is doing fairly well. Her eyesight is poor, but her general health seems to be good. She is a dear, as always.”

EDITOR’S NOTE: Thanks David for sharing Claire and Mary Tom’s information on the Bayliss connection. We’re grateful to Mary Tom who was instrumental in gathering up Don Bondurant’s extensive Bondurant research after Don’s untimely death, and brought it back to University of TN - Martin Library. It has now been microfilmed, and the films are available through interlibrary loan from the TN State Library, Nashville, TN.

WORLD WAR II REGISTRY

If you do not ... Who will?

The memory of America’s World War II generation will be preserved within the physical memorial and through the World War II Registry of Remembrances, an individual listing of Americans who contributed to the war effort.

Any U.S. citizen who helped win the war, whether a veteran or someone on the home front, is eligible for the Registry. Names in the Registry will be forever linked to the memorial’s bronze and granite representations of their sacrifice and achievement.

BONDURANT OR BUNDRANT

Cheryl Morgan Malinen, e-mail: cherylmalinen@msn.com, has tried to find out when the surname spelling changed from the Bondurant found early in VA, to Bundrant, her family line.

THOMAS BONDURANT

Mrs. Marcelle Bondurant Hoffman, e-mail: mkbh@pacbell.net, has corrected the actual name of her gggf Thomas Bondurant, Sr. (1792-1869) who has been called Thomas MORGAN Bondurant in several publications, including issue 64.

“I have tried finding information listing him with a middle name. I have not ever seen his middle name or middle initial listed at all, and I have no idea if it is Morgan.

Someone listed him in a book as ‘T.M.’ ‘The land, donated by T.M. Bondurant, is located on a side road four miles north of Uniontown [AL]...’

I have a copy of the actual deed and he is listed as THOMAS BONDURANT, with no middle name or initial. I also have a copy of his estate from Perry Co., AL, and he is again not listed with a middle initial or name. Samuel F. Bondurant was administrator of Thomas’ estate.

Thomas is listed in the census as Thomas Bondurant along with his children, as you have listed in the last newsletter. Have you any more information that I don’t have regarding Thomas Bondurant, Sr.? I can send copies of these legal papers if you want.”

Mrs. Hoffman “returned from France in November [2004] and what a wonderful trip.

I bumped into Claude [Bondurand] purely by accident in the rain looking for Genolhac and for his family’s cemetery [at Belle Poile]. What a wonderful cousin. We had a nice chat but not long enough for I had another two hours to travel to our hotel in the Gorge of Tarn, which is a little more west of Genolhac....”

EDITOR’S NOTE: Thank you, Marcelle. I am correcting the data base and my files and deleting the spurious middle name. Glad you have checked contemporary records and his estate, since his “legal name” would have been used in the donation and administration.

EARNEST BONDURANT

Thanks to Clinton Bondurant, e-mail: eod13@earthlink.net, who found a stray Bondurant in a Canadian census.

1906 Census of Alberta, Canada, District 19 (Calgary), Subdistrict 19, page 21, house 234, row 29.

BONDURANT, Earnest, “rel. - H”, male, status - s, age 34, birthplace USA, immigration year 1906, Section/Ward 18, Township/Ward 32, Range/No. 24.

Clint added, “My thoughts are that he is one of the sons of CYRUS S. BONDURANT and purchased land in Montana during 1906. Nothing about this Ernest since then, but he was definitely alive at the time of Cyrus' death in 1910.”

THOMAS J. BONDURANT

Clint also sent this information on a World War I soldier.

World War One, Knox County, TN, soldiers, page 39.
