VISITING THE LANDS OF OUR ANCESTORS

With the holidays here, I wish a wonderful holiday season to our great Bondurant family. Although Thanksgiving has passed this year by the time this mailing has been received, it reminds me of how warm I feel to have connected to such a large family. It also remind me of how far our Bondurants and Tanners traveled and how hard they worked for a better life in New America.

As I sit in front of my 21st Century computer, I recall it was just over a month ago that I walked the lands of my ancestors. Mary Warren was spectacular in the way she arranged our historical tour. I have to thank her for the effort she expended in reserving spaces in the tours, the hotel, and the lunch at Surrey Inn.

The leaves were just beginning to change in October. Walking through the lands of Henricus revealed how difficult daily life was for the new Americans. The Indian huts and small wood houses exposed the rough elements of the land. Jean Pierre must have felt shock as he stepped off the boat into his new life of sleeping in an abandoned Indian hut.

His wife's family, the Tanners, having arrived many years prior to Jean Pierre had a better life at the end of the 17th Century. They worshiped in churches similar to Merchants' Hope Church, made of brick. Merchants' Hope Church was an excellent example of the earlier churches of the day. Mr. David Earhart, the Merchants' Hope Church historian, gave a wonderful talk on the church, the construction and daily life of worship in the 17th Century.

After lunch we visited Bacon's Castle, the only original 17th Century surviving example of Jacobean-style construction in the United States. Built by Arthur Allen, it is certainly a house of historical importance. In 1670 Mr. Allen was possibly the wealthiest man in Surry County. Bacon's Castle was a good example of upper class lifestyle in the history of America's first century. Construction was of quality materials, some of which were imported from Europe.

Friday night's "Meet Your Kin" was a success. We had many new faces and the tables were filled with family memorabilia. Friday nights are always a delight to me. I love hearing all the family stories, tales of how families moved around the country, and how new cousins met. Every year there are new presentations and projects exhibited by our kin. Mary Warren had her books there, and Woody Randall's new book was soon to be published. All have a great deal of historical and family data in them.

At Saturday's meeting we were updated on the Bondurant DNA Project by Amy Sanders and Eve Mayes. They did a great job of explaining how our family is joined through DNA. As our family grows, our DNA project grows. Eve and Amy continue to update us, and thankfully interpret the results so we can understand them.

This brings me back to family and holidays. Have a wonderful holiday season, and thank all those who have come before you to make your life better and all those who gather around you now.

Happy Holidays!

Marcelle

SECRETARY'S REPORTOct. 22-23, 2010

Marcelle Hoffman, President, opened the meeting following dinner and invocation given by Rev. Wayne Bondurant. Attending were 33 persons. Seventeen new members responded to letters sent out to encourage membership. Other ways to encourage membership were presented since there was a loss of total membership this year due to death or not renewing their membership dues. It was suggested that the BFA Newsletter be sent with a report from the annual meeting, held in October 2010.

The beautiful BFA Banner was returned and displayed this year. New name tags were ordered for this year's meeting. Minutes of the 2009 meeting were read and approved without corrections or changes.

The Treasurer's report was presented by Amy Sanders. Letters were sent to members, reminding them of renewal membership with annual dues of $20.

The cost of this year's group meeting room and dinner totaled $650. The ladies who care for the gravesites of Jean Pierre and Ann Bondurant were not paid in 2009. A check for $150 was recommended for payment for the service. A motion was made by Mary Warren that the suggested amount, with a thank you note be sent. The Treasurer's report was approved by the members.

Wayne L. Bondurant made a motion recommending that $50 be given in appreciation to Merchant's Hope Episcopal Church for our BFA visit with an excellent history presentation given by David Earhart. Mary Claire Warren seconded the motion, which was approved.

The report was given by Marcelle that the BFA web site, maintained by David W. Bondurant, is available to members. Photos and stories of the family can be mailed or e-mailed to David for use on this website. [David W. Bondurant, 560 Crosswind Point, Colorado Springs, CO 80906-5946]

If members are on Facebook, information may be submitted to BFA Facebook, also. The Huguenot Association (1997-2010) is a resource, available on microfilm.

The President inquired if there were members present who would like to travel to France at a future date. A clipboard was passed for those interested in planning a trip to France might register. Carroll and Ginny Wray announced that plans be made to visit France in May 2012.

"Are there other reunion groups where information on the Bondurant families may discover a connection?" a member inquired. The President offered to send a packet from BFA to identified potential new members.

A discussion followed to determine where the 2011 meeting would be held, and several locations were suggested. Mary Warren stated the importance of having a BFA member there, familiar with the chosen locality, be a necessary consideration. Carroll and Ginny Wray offered to host the 2011 meeting in Greensboro, NC. They know the general area, and will look at possible dates for the 2011 BFA meeting. Wayne Brown made the motion that the Wray's offer be accepted. The Executive Board will confirm the date, and it will be published in the newsletter.

The update on the Bondurant DNA Group Project was given by Amy Sanders. Amy and Eve Weeks explained the updated chart and genetic matches, of biological patterns of the individuals so far tested, as shown on their chart. Questions were asked and explained to the group, for there was a great interest in the possible connections of Bondurants to the original family ancestor who came to America.

Male Bondurant descendants are encouraged to be DNA tested for further validation, by Amy and Eve. Contact FamilyTreeDNA.com or Ancestry.com. If possible choose the 67 marker test.

A nominating committee to recruit a slate of officers for 2012 will be appointed by the President, and presented at the 2011 BFA meeting. The President asked for volunteers, and Wayne Brown, Mary Warren, and Jack Bondurant agreed to serve as the nominating committee.

A short discussion of the cost effectiveness of having fewer pages of the BFA Newsletter, and members stated the fantastic value of our newsletter. It was decided to keep the number of pages the same.

Dues for 2011 may be paid in advance, and it was decided to keep the dues at $20.

An Executive Board meeting was held following the general business meeting. Attending were Marcell Hoffman, Amy Sanders, Mary Warren, and Mary Lanier.

Our website information, available through the BFA Newsletter, has been offered with a password which was changed yearly. Locking the website did not appear to increase interest or membership numbers, so it will now be left open to all.

It was suggested that policy continue holding the annual BFA meetings on even years in Virginia, with the general practice of setting the 3rd weekend of October each year as our "date." The location on odd years will be determined by members present at the previous annual meeting, and consideration of connection by members in the area selected.

A list of officers and their contact information will be added to the directory to create an information tool for members.

As a thank-you promotion, the next BFA newsletter issue of 2010 should be sent to new members for 2011. The economic situation will be kept in mind as budget, dues, and housing for annual meetings are decided. the announcement of annual meeting with information should be sent out early enough for members to make their plans to attend.

The hosts for 2011, the Carroll Wrays, will determine the final date and details for our next BFA meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Mary Bondurant Lanier, Secretary.

TREASURER'S REPORT

DEATHS

Our sympathy goes out to these bereaved families.

MRS. CHRISTINE SPENCER BONDURANT, mother of our former President Ginny Wray, died at her home on 10 Nov. 2010, surrounded by loved ones. Mrs. Bondurant, 91, widow of W. Dana Bondurant, is survived by her five children and spouses, James “Jimmy” Bondurant and wife Mary, Virginia “Ginny” and husband Carroll Wray, W.D. “Buzzy” and wife Susie Bondurant, Linda and husband Mike Mann, and Susan and husband J.T. Jenkins. Two grandchildren predeceased, but 15 grandchildren, 26 great grandchildren, and 4 great great grandchildren survive.

Mrs. Bondurant was a charter member of Guilford College United Methodist Church, and for 62 years a member of the Guilford College community. Burial was in Westminster Gardens.

MRS. MILDRED SNYDER KINGEN, mother of our former Secretary Sharon Kingen, and widow of Dennis Kingen. About the middle of August Mildred was hospitalized with pneumonia, returned home for about 3 weeks, and the illness returned. "She managed to survive for a while after that bout," wrote Sharon, "but she was much frailer and could not walk without assistance. About the middle of October she had to be readmitted to the hospital. She declined rapidly after that and passed away just before 9 p.m. on Oct. 21, 2010."

Sharon continued: "As you know, I am an only child, so I have been overwhelmed with the estate matters since then. . . . I am sad and lonely without her. She was not just my mother but my best friend and companion. I will miss her deeply."

Please let the family know. Even though she was not related to the Bondurants except through marriage, many got to know her from her attendance at some of the annual meetings."

Mildred joined Sharon at many of the BFA meetings, and was liked by all who knew her.

CORRECTION: WILLIAM HENRY BONDURANT

Clint Bondurant (eod13@earthlink.net) has offered help to David George on this family.

William Henry Bondurant was born 1 March 1842 in Stokes Co., NC, and died 11 April 1929. He married Mary Ann Bocock 18 June 1865 in Henry Co., VA. W.H. was buried 12 May 1929 at Rosebud Christian Church Cemetery, Walnut Cove, Stokes Co., NC.

Clint wrote "I have seen him listed as William Bunyon, William James, William Henry, William Carter, and William Henry James on FAMILY PUBLIC TREES. I have him listed only as William Henry because of one of his children's death certificates.

I believe that Joe H. and Joel Marvin Bondurant are one and the same. I know that Joel was called 'Joe' and I also believe the 'H' was a misprint in the obituary.

Charles Griff Bondurant's NC Death Certificate has him born 15 Oct. 1890 Stokes Co., NC, died 10 Jan. 1931 High Point, Guilford Co., NC. Wife was Inez Bryant. He was buried at High Point, NC, no cemetery listed. Parents Billy Bondurant b. NC, and Mary Peacock [Bocock], and the informant for the death certificate was the widow Mrs. C.G. Bondurant. they did not have any children.

Charles Griff Bondurant was the grandson of William and Mary Bondurant, not their son. The 1900 census has him listed as grandson, and his mother was Mary Fannie Bondurant and an unknown father. Mary Fannie later married Joseph C. [Josephus, Joe Cephus] Mitchell. I have not researched to see if she had children by this marriage. According to two of Mary Fannie's sisters, Charles Griff was raised by his grandparents as one of their own."

OLD NEWSPAPERS

The Atlanta Constitution, Atlanta, Georgia, 7 Sep 1913 - Engagement Announcement

BONDURANT-DUDLEY

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Bondurant announce the engagement of their daughter Mary Burton, to Martin G. Dudley, of Greenwood, Miss., the wedding to take place in October. No Cards.

Chicago Daily Tribune, Chicago, Illinois, 14 Feb 1925 - Marriage Announcement

The marriage of Agnes Henrietta Lang, the daughter of daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lang of 1057 Loyola Avenue, to Walter Bondurant of South Bend, Ind., is to take place at 11:00 this morning at St. Ignatius. A wedding breakfast will be served at the Sovereign Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Bondurant will reside in Cleveland after April 1.

MATTIE LOUISE BONDURANT,
Rice, VA

Mrs. Babs Richmond, 2684 Sardis Drive, Buford, GA 30519 (770/945-3370) wrote: "This was from my grandmother's things after she passed away. She was Sarah Adella Bell Beard, born in Prince Edward County, VA. I hope this photo will be of some meaning to someone in this Bondurant family."

On the back of the photograph was written:
Mattie Louise Bondurant, Rice Virginia.
Cousin of the Bells. My school teacher at old Abilene, Va.

EDITOR'S NOTE: We have only three Mattie Bondurants in the data base. Could this be Mattie I. Bondurant, born 1869, died 1892, buried in Liberty Cemetery, Fulton, KY. If this is the lady in the picture, then who were her parents and siblings?

Mattie Bondurant, b. 1896, became the wife of Lee Kitts. She was daughter of William R.B. Bondurant and Harriet Angeline Jennings. I have no death date for this Mattie.

Judging from her clothing, Mattie LeVert Bondurant, wife of Richard F. Morgan, 1916-1993, would have been born too late to be the lady in this photograph. Or am I wrong, Ken and Walton?

WHAT BECAME OF THEIR BONDURANT RESEARCH?

In the 1930s, two persons wrote to my family about our Bondurant history --

Oct. 1933, Dr. Flint Bondurant of Cairo, IL wrote that his sister Miss VELA BONDURANT of Casper, WY, “made some investigation [into Bondurant history] some years ago.”

Jan. 1934, Miss Eura Mae Powell of Birmingham, AL wrote that her “maternal grandmother was a Bondurant of Uniontown, AL, where we were reared. My brother [Eugene] was named for Dr. Eugene Bondurant of Uniontown, who in turn was named for Dr. Eugene Bondurant of Mobile, AL.

We already had in our possession a large amount of family records of comparative recent years and certain high spots dated back as far as 1700 where ‘Jean Pierre Bondurant came over in Ye Peter and Anthony Ship, an English Galley in September 1700 with other Huguenot refugees to Virginia.’”

Further in her letter she was searching for a pamphlet “titled ‘Agee Family Record’ written a number of years ago by the Rev. J.W. Agee of LaBelle, MO.”

EDITOR’S NOTE: This particular Agee pamphlet is unknown to me. Have any of you seen a copy of this pamphlet?

In the case of Miss Powell, her particular family connection back to her maternal grandmother is also missing in our data base. It would appear that they may connect with Dr. Eugene DuBose Bondurant of Mobile, but it’s possible that the name entered the family solely out of admiration for the Doctors Bondurant.

Can you tell more about them?

SIMEON T. WALTON, C.S.A.

By Walton Gibson Bondurant, Jr., Smithfield, VA

Simeon Taylor Walton, born March 2, 1829, was the son of Rev. William M. Walton and Mary William Wootton of Osceola Plantation, Prince Edward Co., VA. The name Simeon came from his paternal grandfather and great grandfather of the same name, and Taylor from his maternal grandmother Elizabeth Taylor Wootton. After beginning his formal education in medicine near home under Dr. John Peter Mattauer of Hampden Sydney, VA, Simeon graduated in 1849 from Jefferson [Medical] College, Philadelphia, PA, with an M.D. He practiced at Sandy River Church in Prince Edward Co., before moving to Keysville, VA in 1855.

Dr. Walton followed in the footsteps of his paternal grandfather, Dr. Simeon Walton, Jr., who was also a physician in Prince Edward Co. Shortly after graduation Simeon married Pamela Ligon in Prince Edward Co. The couple lived next his grandmother Elizabeth, 83, and his parents. His father William Walton was a farmer with land valued at $3800 and Simeon was listed as “MD” with land worth $1200. Pamela and Simeon had a daughter in 1852, listed only as “A.H. Walton.” Pamela probably died in childbirth because their daughter A.H. later lived with Simeon and his second wife Araminta.

In 1854 Simeon’s mother died, and a year later Simeon moved to Keysville, VA, and bought a house on the King’s Road formerly owned by Mrs. Pollack. Here in 1857 Simeon married Araminta “Minta” Glinn, formerly of Richmond, VA. Minta’s father Rush, and brother

Rush Glinn, Jr., fought in the Civil War and were buried in Ash Camp Memorial Cemetery, Keysville.

A daughter, Octavia Levert “Vertie” Walton, was born 8 Dec. 1858 to Minta and Simeon. The Ligon family genealogy says that Minta was related to Dr. Mettauer who taught medicine to Simeon.

Virginia seceded from the Union on 17 April 1861, and joined the Confederacy. Simeon had already enlisted in the “Keysville Guards” and by July 1861 was promoted to Captain in the 23rd Regiment, VA Infantry. Dr. Walton was a devout member of Disciples Church with a strong belief in the “Right and Holiness of the Southern Cause.” (A.S. Priddy, 1910) Simeon was also described as “dignified, grave and possessed of a kindness of heart and love for his fellowman” and it was said that he “knew no fear except that of God.” Because of the great need for surgeons in the Confederate Army hospitals, Dr. Walton was urged to transfer to that branch of service, but he declined, expressing a preference for service in the field.

This war brought heartache and pain as to be expected. In Feb. 1862, Simeon’s brother James Walton (the dentist) died as a result of being “accidentally shot” (Civil War related?) A month later Simeon was wounded in battle at Winchester, VA. Then little brother Samuel Henry Walton died at home in Prince Edward Co. May 1862, at the age of 12. Four months later Simeon lost still another brother, William A. Walton. Both Simeon and William saw action in the Antietam Campaign at Sharpsburg, MD, where William, 31 and a sergeant in the 234d VA Regiment was killed on 17 Sept. 1862. On the same day and in the same battle Simeon was wounded again, and ten days later he was admitted to the General Hospital at Staunton, VA. Simeon was wounded yet again in January 1863 near Snicker’s Neck, between Winchester and Leesburg, VA. By 9 Aug. 1862, at age 33, he was promoted to Lt. Colonel.

In January 1863 Simeon and Minta became the parents of a son Simeon T. Walton, Jr. Four months after the birth of his son, Simeon was in the Battle of Chancellorsville in Spotsylvania Co., VA, where “Stonewall” Jackson was killed by friendly fire on 9 May 1863. Although it was a Confederate victory there were many casualties and Simeon was very sick, yet he was on the field of battle against doctor’s orders.

By 26 May Simeon was ordered by Gen. Robert E. Lee to lead the 23rd Regiment in picking up arms from the battlefield at Chancellorsville. Just two months later he saw action again with the 23rd in the Battle of Gettysburg, where more men fought and died than in any battle in U.S. history. Simeon Taylor Walton was reported killed on 27 Nov. 1863 in the Battle of Payne’s Farm, Mine Run Campaign, in Orange Co., VA. Mine Run lies due west of Fredericksburg and southwest of Wilderness. The soldiers reported that when Simeon’s body was brought back to camp, a promotion to Brigadier General was waiting for him. He was buried in Westview Cemetery on Route 15 south of Farmville, VA, and his grave is marked by a typical white marble stone inscribed with name, rank, company and “CSA.”

Reconstruction was hard on his survivors for Osceola, the Walton plantation home since the 1700s was lost. Simeon’s home in Keysville must have been lost, too, for Minta ended up living with “Vertie” as her father referred to her in letters, and young Simeon, Jr., in a Danville, VA, boarding house. Daughter A.H. Walton’s life is a mystery. Simeon, Jr. was last known to be a salesman living in a boarding house in Washington, DC, when he was 37. There was another son, W. Rush Walton, named after Araminta’s father, German Rush Glinn. The child was born in 1860m, and according to records he was living with his sister Adella Walton in the home of his grandfather William Walton in the 1870 census.

“Vertie” survived the boarding house life, then at age 22 lived with her uncle Robert Hester Walton, Simeon’s brother. Vertie married JAMES ALVA BONDURANT in Prince Edward Co. in 1882 and had four children. She was buried in Pisgah Church Cemetery, Rice, VA. Octavia Levert “Vertie” Walton Bondurant is the great grandmother of the author, and Simeon Taylor Walton, his great great frandfather.

Charlotte Co., VA, has honored Simeon Taylor Walton by naming their “Walton Magisterial District” which includes Keysville for him. A memorial near the Keysville train station in Simeon’s honor was later moved to Ash Camp Memorial Cemetery by Luetta Jeffreys Thompson and the Keysville Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, which was named “The Simeon T. Walton Chapter” until it was disbanded in the 1940s.

Walton G. Bondurant, Jr., scanned and sent us photographs of members of the family.

THE BONDURANTS OF AMERICA -- Jean Pierre and Ann

By Mary Bondurant Warren,
with Ruby Talley Smith and Amy Warren Sanders

The Bondurants' "First Hundred Years" in Virginia.

Here is the story of Huguenot Jean Pierre Bondurant's life after he landed in 1700 at Jamestown. How did this French exile adapt to an English-speaking society? What was his life like in the colony? Meet his wife Ann Tanner, and learn more about their five children, and grandchildren. Watch the Bondurant family grow with the colony, move into new lands, and new occupations.

A "Sentimental Journey" takes you to places important in the family history. Hardbound, 218 pages including maps, photographs, illustrations, and a full name index. $35.00.

THE BONDURANTS OF AMERICA --Ann Tanner's Ancestors

By Mary Bondurant Warren,
with Ruby Talley Smith and Amy Warren Sanders

HATCHER, JONES, LOUND & TANNER of Virginia

Jean Pierre married into a tidewater Virginia English family, whose ancestors had been in the colony two or three generations when the Huguenots arrived. These are stories and documents relating the life of Ann's colorful ancestors. Learn about the parts they played in Virginia's early history. A "Sentimental Journey" leads you to present-day sites which once were the homes of Ann's ancestors.

Hardbound, 173 pages including maps, photographs, illustrations, and a full name index. $30.00
