THOMAS WESLEY BONDURANT

Carole Krutsch has cleared up the confusion about this man, and his two wives, who were Streeter sisters. This is their fam ily:

BONDURANT HELP FROM SHARON KINGEN

Sharon (sakingen@hrtc.net) sent in answers to some of the questions found in our previous issue.

DAVID SUMNER BONDURANT was the son of Sumner David "Suddarth" Bondurant, born 18 Feb. 1916 in Gentry, AR, died 25 March 1985 Henderson, Clark Co., NV, and Elizabeth Janette Henry, born?, died ?

David Sumner had a brother, Gary Edward Bondurant, born 25 Jan. 1944 in Hollywood, Los Angeles Co., CA.

Their grandfather was Edward Turner Bondurant, born 6 June 1866, Columbia, Howard Co., MO, died 1950 CA, and his wife Hattie Belle Burton, born 5 Sept. 1881, died 11 Feb. 1919 in Collinsville, OK. Sharon has the names of the other three children of Edward T. and Hattie B. Bondurant.

Edward Turner Bondurant was the son of David Crews Bondurant, born 23 Dec. 1831 Howard Co., MO, died 23 Feb. 1905 Pike Co., MO, and his second wife, Susan E. Turner, born 24 Mar. 1844 Fayette Co., MO, died 13 Dec. 1912 Hayetta, Howard Co., MO. They had a total of 6 children. David Crews Bondurant's first wife was Mary Jane Crews, born 22 July 1837 MO, died 27 April 1858, probably in Howard Co., MO. They had only one child, John Milton Bondurant.

David Crews Bondurant was the son of Capt. John Bondurant, and Nancy Sarah "Sallie" Crews. Capt. John was the son of Edward Bondurant (1768-1853) and Nancy Martin.

Editor's Note: Edward was the son of John Bondurant (1737-1807) and Pauline Marshall Allen. Edward's wife Nancy M. Martin was the daughter of John Martin and Rachel Pace.

John Bondurant (Jr.) was the son of John Bondurant, Sr. and Sarah Rachael Taylor, and grandson of Jean Pierre and Ann Bondurant.

ISABELLE HADLEY BONDURANT was the wife of Robert Engle or Engel Bondurant. From the Kokomo Tribune, IN, 16 Jan. 1953: "Mrs. Robert Bondurant and daughter Mary Ann, and son Robert of South Bend were recent guests of Mrs. Bondurant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hadley. Mary Ann has returned to Miss Porter's School for Girls in Farmington, CT, and Robert returned to Culver Military Academy.

From the New York Times, 21 June 1957. "South Bend, IN, June 20 - Miss Ann Bondurant and Thomas Dennehy Hodgkins will wed. Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Bondurant have announced their engagement. . . ."

Robert Engle Bondurant born 6 June 1909 IN, was the son of Phillip E. Bondurant, born 14 Sept. 1868 Marshall Co., IN, died 19 Sept. 1957, South Bend, St. Joseph Co., IN, and Clara Eleanora Engle, born 3 Sept. 1871 near Bremen, Marshall Co., IN, died 29 Dec. 1945.

Bondurant was the son of Allen Simpson Bondurant, born 3 Dec. 1840 IN, died 20 June 1871, and Sara Elisabeth Huff, born 19 Jan. 1850 Marshall Co., IN, died 31 Jan. 1933 Napanee, Elkhart Co., IN. Allen Simpson was the son of Hercules Agee Bondurant, born 30 July 1812 Frankfort, Franklin Co., KY, died 21 Oct. 1889, Bremen, Marshall Co., IN, and Elizabeth

Layton, born 21 Sept. 1816 Frankfort, KY, died 7 Dec. 1891. Hercules was the son of Noah Bondurant, born 18 June 1784 VA, died 14 Dec. 1856 in Jefferson Co., IN, and Martha Chastain born about 1784 VA, died 18 Oct. 1865, MO. Noah was the son of Rev. Thomas Bondurant and Rhoda Agee.

“MARY ANN MANGUS BONDURANT’s husband was probably a descendant of Rev. Thomas, Noah, and Hercules Agee Bondurant, but I don’t know any of the specifics,” added Sharon.

POLLY HARRIS BONDURANT’s husband Hugh Peter Bondurant, Sr., was born 24 March 1922 TN, died 6 Jan. 2000 in or near Pulaski, Giles Co., TN, and was the son of Richard Green Bondurant born 1 Sept. 1880 VA, died April 1973 in or near Armore, Giles Co., TN, and his wife Elizabeth Benson Patterson, born about 1878 TN.

Peter was the son of James Henry Bondurant, Sr., born about 1803-6 VA, died about 1886 and Margaret Boccock, born between 1810-15 VA.

“I AM GUESSING HERE, but I think that James Henry was the son of Joel Bondurant and Sarah “Sally” Wheat, but I have absolutely no proof of that. Do you have any data on this line which clusters around southern VA and northern NC,” concluded Sharon.

Editor’s Note: I can only add that Joel and Sally were married in Bedford Co., VA, where the Wheat family were prominent residents (Wheat’s Valley).

RICHARD McDOWELL BONDURANT was the son of Louis Palmer Bondurant [Sr.] born 8 Sept. 1894 GA or FL, died 14 Sept. 1991 Atlanta, Fulton Co., GA. His wife was Emily Mallard, born 9 Oct. 1900, died 18 Jan. 1986, buried in Sunset Hill Cemetery, Valdosta, Lowndes Co., GA.

Charles was the son of Capt. John Parnell “Jack” Bondurant and his first wife Mary Burton Logwood, and “Jack” the son of Littleberry Bondurant of Bedford Co., VA.

Leland was the son of Albert Clarkston Bondurant, born 1 Aug. 1884, Wentzville, St. Charles Co., MO, died April 1981 Hillsboro, Montgomery Co., IL, and Myrtle Illinois Smith, born 1886 IL. Albert was the son of John B. Bondurant born 5 Dec. 1855 St. Charles Co., MO, died 6 June 1915 St. Charles Co., MO and his wife Ella Frances Darnell, born about 1857 MO, died 6 Nov. 1927 Montgomery Co., IL. They married 30 March 1881 in St. Charles Co., MO.

John B. Bondurant was the son of Lewis Bondurant, born 29 Oct. 1829 VA, died 9 Nov. 1884 MO, and Frances Owens "Fannie" Richards, born 1824 VA, died 22 April 1880. ### LEIDEN COLLECTION #199755

The LDS Family History Library now has available this 199 reel collection of abstracts made from the surviving Holland Huguenot church registers. This index was prepared 1880-1910, and formerly housed in the Walloon Library in Leiden, Holland.

When I had access to the collection at the Family History Library in Salt Lake City, UT, I checked for anyone of the spelling Bondurant or variations.

The only person in the index was [no given name] Bondurant, sex unknown, who became a member of the Nimègue congregation in the year 1686 [no month or date stated in index].

This wasn't our Jean Pierre, for he was still a minor, under the guardianship of cousin André Bondurant, and living in Genolhac. But from this we know that more than one Bondurant or Bondurant fled France in the time of the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes.

At the Family History Library I also found ProQuest Obituaries, so I copied these Bondurant entries. Note that the date given is NOT the date of death; it is the date of issue of the newspaper. These were index references to where the obituaries could be found, and not the contents of the obituaries.

When I knew the full names of some of these decedents, I've added this in brackets. I asked for the Bondurants from newspapers beginning at the earliest Bondurant in the index. This happened to be my great grandmother Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Jopling Bondurant, 2nd wife of John Parnell Bondurant I.

THOMAS RICHARD BUNDREN & LEWIS G. BONDURANT

Clint Bondurant (eod13@earthlink.net) wrote: "I have talked with both these men on several occasions."

THOMAS RICHARD BUNDREN, 89, of Chilhowee, obituary in Kansas City Star, 18 April 2011. He died at his home on 16 April 2011 surrounded by his family. Richard was born 10 Dec. 1921 to Lynn Tuttle Bundren and Margaret Milam (Lewis) in Fendon, MT, in a log cabin his father had built. Richard and family remained there until he was 3, when they moved to Harlowton, MT. Eventually they went back to MO and settled in Kansas City.

Richard served in World War II with the US Army 51st Combat Engineers in the Asia-Pacific Theater. After returning home in Jan. 1946, Richard joined the 110th Engineers, and served 6 years in the MO National Guard. He worked 29 years at Standard Oil Company at Sugar Creek, MO.

He was a longtime member of the Chilhowee Baptist Church. Richard met Lucille Fenson at a church function, and they married 8 Sept. 1951. Three children:

Dennis Bundren and wife Gale of Grain Valley MO

Debbie Bundren and husband Ernie Wilson of Chilhowee

Leah Bundren and husband Donald Daugherty of Holden, MO.

Grandchildren: Scott Thomas Bundren (wife Nikki), Lee's Summit, MO; Allison and Ashley Bundren of Grain Valley; Barry Wilson of Bollingbrook, IL; Jennifer Daugherty Robison and husband Randy of Polo, MO; Michael Daugherty and wife Lynette of Warrensburg, MO; and Laurie Daugherty of Holden.

Great grandchildren: Samuel and Reid Bundren of Lee's Summit; Jared and Ryan Robison of Polo; and Peyton and Madison Daugherty of Warrensburg.

Richard Bundren was preceded in death by his wife of 53 years, Lucille, his parents, and two sisters and their spouses: Lurene and George "Bus" Richardson; Lucille and Johnnie Lankford. Funeral from the Chilhowee Baptist Church with burial in the Chilhowee Cemetery with full military honors.

LEWIS G. BONDURANT, 88, of Louisville, KY, died 13 May 2011 at his residence. He was a veteran of World War II, and former director of Public Relations and Disaster Services for the American Red Cross in Louisville, KY.

His parents were James H. Bondurant and Minnie Alice Bland; sisters Martha Lyon and Mildred Gentry; brothers James Willie and Richard Bondurant, all preceded him in death.

Lewis was survived by his wife JoAnne Parker Bondurant of Louisville, KY, a special nephew Ben Humphries of Elizabethtown, KY, and numerous nieces and nephews. Funeral from the Chapel of Bruington-Jenkins-Sturgeon Funeral Home in Brandenburg, KY, and burial in Cap Anderson Cemetery.

THOMAS BONDURANT OF BOONE CO., KY

Dale Ashcraft (e-mail: dash484@yahoo.com) descends from this early family member. "Really tearing into my tree after fifty years of playing with it," he wrote. "My father got us all interested in our ancestry when he moved us to the county in 1956, and decided to make us little farmers, buying pigs, horses, cows, etc., and planting a garden.

When he was discing the ground he turned up two tombstones that had been buried for years. It was PHILLIP BAKER and SARA BONDURANT (Thomas' daughter) who had owned the property a hundred years before us. It was not known they lived there when he [my father] bought it. We have been chasing them ever since.

I went over to the farm Thomas bought in the early 1800s and looked at the cemetery (all fieldstones). I also located Sarah's sister [Frances Bondurant and Jacob Holtsclaw] who is buried on the County School Board property in Florence, KY. The rumor was Thomas was a doctor, but I have never confirmed it," concluded Dale.

In a later e-mail Dale provided further information:

"Tom and Peggy [Drury Bondurant] lived off Locust Grove Road outside of Burlington, KY. They both died there, Tom first then Peggy. Phillip Bondurant (my line) and Sarah built their home in Union, KY and lived there till their deaths. We sold our property back in the 1980s and a couple of years ago the owner of the property leveled everything and moved Phillip and Sarah [Bondurant Baker's bodies] to Union Cemetery.

I was there when the move was made; they found a few bones and buttons and a comb that Sarah Bondurant Baker had in her hair. I have the buttons, and comb; the bones were reburied. A neighbor who is also a direct line to Thomas Bondurant thought some people moved the logs from their home and reassembled them on his property. He did a great job and I cannot imagine how much he spent doing it.

My line is through my father's side. His grandmother was a Baker, daughter of Dan Baker who was the son of Phillip Baker and Sarah Bondurant. Almost all of the relatives still live in the northern KY area. The Holsclaws are buried on county property, and their graves are located directly behind the Board of Education Building. I saw in a census some years back that Peggy Drury Bondurant was living with them."

Editor's Note: This is also the couple Harry Greene descended from, Dale.

We can assume that Thomas' children, born through about 1816, were all born in Bedford Co. where Thomas appeared as the head of family in the 1830 Bedford Co., VA, census (when there were 11 children reported in his family). Some of those young children, may be Thomas' grandchildren, for we know the names of only 9 of his children.

BEDFORD CO., VA

1810 census. 2 males born 1800-1810; 1 male born 1765-1784 [Thomas]; 3 females born 1800-1810; 2 females born 1794-1800, and 1 female born 1765-1784 [Peggy].

14 Nov. 1818, Bedford Co., VA, Deed Book 15, page 520, Thomas and Peggy Drury sold their land to John Hubbard, and we must assume they left soon after for KY. This seems to assure that his children were Bedford Co., VA, natives.

1830 census, page 149, Bedford Co., VA. Males, 2 born 1820-25, 1 born 1810-1815, 1 born 1800-1810, and 1 born 1770-1780; Females, 2 born 1825-1830, 1 born 1820-1825, 2 born 1815-1820, 2 born 1810-1815, and 1 born 1780-1790. Is this Thomas and Peggy?

BOONE CO., KY

17 June 1820, Marriage Book A, page 55, Thomas gave consent for marriage of daughter Sarah "Sally" to marry Philip Baker.

Did Thomas appear in the 1820 census in Boone Co.? A man of this name was enumerated there in 1830 Census in Boone Co., KY, although we believe the man enumerated in 1830 census of Bedford Co., was Thomas and wife Peggy Drury. If he were counted twice, why?

1 Oct. 1838, Boone Co., KY Deed Book L, page 279. Thomas bought land on Gunpowder Creek from Berryman Ragsdale.

22 Oct. 1839, the will of Thomas Bondurant was proved in Boone Co., KY.

THOMAS BONDURANT, born 1770 in "Old Hollow," Bedford Co., VA, died 22 Oct. 1839 in Boone Co., KY, married 26 Jan. 1792 in Bedford Co., VA. Minister was Rev. Drury, Surety was Thomas Pullen. Thomas' parents said to be Joel Bondurant (the elder) and ? O'Brien.

EUGENE SI BONDURANT, M.D.

Our President, Marcelle Hoffman (e-mail: mkbsubscribe@pacbell.net) picked up on this family member whose data appeared on page 11, in our previous issue.

“I wrote a while back about Dr. Eugene Bondurant of Uniontown [AL], who supposedly was named after Dr. Eugene Bondurant of Mobile, AL. I’m sure Eura Mae Powell might have known more about this.”

Dr. Eugene Si Bondurant (1874-1906), was the oldest of 8 children of Thomas Morgan Bondurant (1849-1919) and Sarah Elizabeth Frances “Fannie” Cope (1851-1895). Eugene was born 28 July 1874, and died 15 Sept. 1906. His gravestone is in Rosemont Cemetery, Uniontown, AL. He had married Bertha White, but was divorced. "My uncle said he died of a broken heart and went crazy after the divorce.

It seems that Mae Louise Evans, daughter of Mariah Louise Bondurant and Sam Saul Evans, first cousins, was close to my Thomas Morgan Bondurant family. The T.M. Bondurant family lived a little out of Uniontown on a 40 acre farm. The cousins Dr. Eugene Si, and May Louise were born 2 years apart, and I am assuming if Eura Mae, daughter of May Louise, truly grew up in Uniontown, and had no mother, they played together, shared houses.

Dr. Eugene Si Bondurant did not have children, and died young. Eugene Si was very close to the whole Bondurant clan from Uniontown. My uncle John still talks about Dr. Eugene Si, even though Eugene died before my uncle was born.

My father was also named after Dr. Eugene Si, and my other Kendrick side – Eugene Kendrick Bondurant." The Si came from his mother's Cope side.

VIRGINIA'S COLONIAL CHURCHES

Magazine of Virginia Genealogy, Nov. 2010, vol. 48, no. 4, page 271 included a transcription of a document filed at The National Archives, formerly the Public Records Office, Kew, Surrey, England. 23. [C.O. 5/ 13/1312, part 2, folio 189; part of the Secretary of State's correspondence titled "Colonial Office."]

"List of the Parishes, Tythables, Ministers, Executive Officers, etc. in Virginia, referred to in Mr. Jennings's Letter of 10 July 1702.

Received and read 21 Sept 1702; Entered Folio 22, H."

This document provided the names of the functioning parishes, and in most of them, the number of tithables.

"Henrico County

Varina and Henrico, Jacob Ware [minister], 709 tithables

Bristol [parish] part, Thomas Robinson, 518 tithables

King Wm. [parish] part, Benj' de Joux [minister], [tithables blank]."

At that time our Jean Pierre Bondurant had left the Huguenot settlement at Manakintown, to seek his fortune in the vicinity of Colonial Heights, VA, where he bought 200 acres of land at Matoaca, VA. Jean Pierre would not have been counted as a tithable in King William Parish, the Huguenot church.

Pastor Benjamin de Joux was the senior minister of the Huguenot congregation which had been allowed by the governor to form its own parish, on the condition that it also provide for the support of its minister.

The very earliest records of King William Parish have not survived. The King William Parish Vestry Book 1707-1750, owned by the Virginia Historical Society, has been published in book form in 1966. This began during the controversial pastorship of Richbourg, whose tampering with the Vestry Book caused a split in the congregation in June 1712. He led a splinter group first to NC, then on to SC, where he died.

It is in this book where we first find Jean Pierre's sons John and Peter as tithables; they were on the new land, clearing enough to make way for a house. Then their father Jean Pierre appeared on the tithables list in 1730, and was elected to the vestry but never took his seat. Family continued to live in King William Parish until the 1750s when all three sons sold out and moved to what became Buckingham Co., VA.

Bristol Parish descended from Charles City Parish, not from Henrico Parish, and in 1702 included lands on both sides of Appomattox River. It was established in 1643 “for the conveniency of the inhabitants on both sides of Appomattock River being farr remote from the parish church of the said plantation upon Appomattock, be bounded into a parish by themselves as followeth, to begin at Causson’s field within the mouth of Appomattock River on the eastward side, and at Powell’s Creek on the westward side of the river, and so to extend up the river to the falls on both sides and the said parish to be called by the name of Bristoll.” Jean Pierre’s land at Matoaca may have fallen into Bristol Parish.

Bristol Parish does have surviving records in the VA State Library, mss #20335 according to their publication Guide to Church Records, 1981. The Register “has in general an alphabetical and chronological arrangement for the period indicated (1720-1792). However earlier and later items were added and the actual date range is 1685-1798. Included are births and baptisms, a few deaths, but no marriages.

The Vestry Book includes minutes which cover the period from Oct. 30, 1720 to April 18, 1789. See The Vestry Book and Register of Bristol Parish, Virginia, 1729-1789, C.G. Chamberlayne, 1898.”

In summary, we have already abstracted the few mentions of our family taken from the King William Parish records. What we need is records of Jean Pierre, and family from 1701 until 1730 when he reappeared as a tithable in King William Parish. Keep looking!
