FALL COLORS IN THE BEAUTIFUL BLUE RIDGE

by President David Bondurant

Judy and I had a great time at the 2012 BFA annual meeting in Bedford, Oct. 19-20. The trees were beautiful in Bedford and along the Blue Ridge Parkway. Our tour took us to the Peaks of Otter, and then south to Rocky Mount to see where "Lawless" was filmed and the Bondurant Boys moonshined.

We met lots of new cousins on Friday night at "Meet Your Kin." At the annual meeting we honored Mary Bondurant Warren, our Newsletter editor, for her years of service to the organization. The award was presented by Ruby Talley Smith, one of our founders.

Bob and Pat Bondurant sent their apologies for missing the meeting this year. They invited us to Chandler, AZ, for the 2013 BFA meeting. We will have the opportunity again to participate in a short driving experience with their Bondurant Corvettes at the Bondurant School of High Performance Driving. We are looking forward to next years meeting there.

I talked to Bob Bondurant today. They are eager to have us at the school. He talked about either October or November for the meeting. He said November was cooler in AZ. Check the Facebook page. I posted the video from Bondurant School, from the annual meeting on the BFA Facebook page.

AWARD

by Ruby Talley Smith

Mary and her father have been researching the Bondurant family for more than fifty years. Years ago her father John Parnell Bondurant wrote many letters to Bondurants all over the country in an attempt to learn about where they came from and how they fit together. One day, when Mary had five young children and was knee-deep in diapers and suffering from cabin-fever, her father brought her his box of letters and said, "See what you can do with these.” That was the beginning.

Now look what we have done under Mary’s guidance. Mary has been the one to push for yearly meetings which have kept us close as a family. She is the one who publishes the newsletter that keeps one informed. She was the one who led us to France to see the places our ancestors lived. Mary has been the glue that has held the BFA together all these years.

We are all proud of Mary’s many accomplishments. Not just her work in keeping BFA together, but in the many books she has published, and her contributions to the field of genealogy in general. On top of all this, she is a wonderful, generous person. Thank you, Mary!

ANNUAL MEETING MINUTES

By Marcelle Hoffman, Secretary

Friday, October 19, 2012: Bedford, VA, was the site of the 26th BFA meeting held at the Welcome Center. A count of 50 members arrived for the “Meet Your Kin” opening event at 7:30 p.m. There at the Welcome Center were displayed family photos, posters, and past history of our association. Some of the various displays were pictures of our ancestral homes and area of our family in France, photos of grandparents, and an interesting scrap book of post cards written by a Bondurant member in the 1800s.

After an hour of socializing, David and Judy Bondurant, Co-Presidents of the Association, welcomed everyone to Bedford and made an announcement concerning the weekend’s schedule of events.

There were introductions made throughout the family. It was interesting to note how many family members came from so far, and how many family members were here from the area.

Saturday, October 20, 2012: There was a complimentary breakfast at the hotel. We held the Saturday meeting at the Bedford Welcome Center.

At 10 a.m. David Bondurant welcomed all. He introduced himself and wife Judy, our Co-Presidents. Amy Sanders, Treasurer, and Marcelle Hoffman, Secretary, were also introduced. Members then introduced themselves, stated where they were from, and some even spoke on their current family events.

Jack and Gretchen Bondurant spoke on their recent exposure to Hollywood for the premier of the movie “Lawless,” about Jack’s father.

President David, using a PowerPoint presentation, spoke of the BFA website and its maintenance. Minutes were read by Marcell Hoffman, and approved.

Amy Sanders read the Treasurer’s report, and copies were passed out to the attendees. It was read and approved. She noted that we had dropped membership again this year with only 109 members. Discussion on how to increase membership followed. It was suggested that members receive the newsletter by e-mail to cut the ever-increasing mailing expense. If the newsletters were sent by e-mail, member can print them at their leisure. David suggested giving children gifts of membership. Darla Marks brought up the thought that she likes to read the actual paper, and she would erase the letter by e-mail.

Ed Bondurant suggested that Facebook BFA friends join and suggested that we obtain names through the Internet. He also suggested signing up with PayPal for our renewals. Objections to PayPal accounting were met because of the cost.

Jack Bondurant said his son Matt, author of the book from which the screenplay “Lawless” was taken, had received dozens of inquiries on the family after the movie was out. Matt forwards them to Jack, who has responded to many of these letters.

Ruby T. Smith stood and awarded Mary Bondurant Warren for her continued contribution to our society. There is more than 50 years of Bondurant research, and 26 years in the Association, and we are very proud of the work that she has accomplished in making our Association run. She has been the driving force to the success of the yearly meetings, and printing of our family history. Marcell Hoffman spoke in appreciation, and presented Mary with a gift certificate.

Ruby then spoke of the lengthy court case in Bedford of Alvin Saunders vs C.R. Bondurant. Saunders charged Bondurant with buying a horse cheap while Saunders was intoxicated; Bondurant charged that Saunders didn’t own the horse in question. After more than 100 pages of testimony, the charge was dismissed!

New Business: After the Treasurer’s report was approved, Shalon Bondurant Jarrell said that she lives in Powhatan, just two miles from Jean Pierre’s marker. She and her family are willing to donate their time to keep up the grave site, since the previous cleaner has moved.

2013 Meeting Site was suggested after a short presentation by Bob Bondurant welcoming us to his driving school in Arizona. Everyone voted to accept his invitation. David also suggested that a back-up meeting site be chosen, Colorado Springs, which he and Judy would host if we failed to go to AZ.

Darla Marks suggested we pass around a list for those interested in taking a trip to France in 2013. Bonnie Dudley Dodson spoke about her recent visit to France and Genolhac, and suggested that it would be a good idea to go as a group. She shared her photos from the trip.

Mary Bondurant Warren presented a PowerPoint showing of the Bondurant’s history from 12th Century France, to Genolhac, to Jean Pierre’s arrival in America. She also touched on the five Bondurant children and their movements. Bondurants who lived in Bedford Co. were also mentioned, and some photos shown. Then maps and information on how to make an auto tour to sites in the area were distributed.

David dismissed the group at 11:30 to gather for lunch at The Liberty Station. All posters, photos, and memorabilia had to be removed, for we were leaving the Welcome Center.

We gathered on the Welcome Center terrace for a group photograph, then adjourned the meeting until 2013!

Executive Board Meeting, Oct. 20, 2012, Bedford, VA

Meeting was opened after supper at Super 8 Motel, Bedford. Attending were Co-Presidents David and Judy Bondurant, Mary B. Warren, Amy Sanders, Marcelle Hoffman present.

Nominating for 2013. David and Judy will not serve another term, and suggested the appointment of a nominating committee to search for their replacements for 2013. Jack Bondurant and Clint Bondurant were suggested.

Next Year. Bob Bondurant's School of High Performance Driving, was first choice of the members, with Co-Presidents offering to host at Colorado Springs if needed. Dates were discussed, and Bob Bondurant has to be contacted to see what dates are open for him.

Jean Pierre and Ann's gravesite. Amy suggested we pay Shalon Jarrell the $150 a year stipend to maintain the lot.

French trip. Mary suggested that a travel agency be contacted with ideas from our last trip in 1993. The agency must make arrangements, and price the trip so those who want to go will know its cost. We need to think about hotels, airfare, bus transportation, and interpreter, and any side trips we may want to make.

She suggested we contact Ginny and Carroll Wray, who missed this meeting, for they were interested in going again. We should also e-mail Phillippe Bondurand, who lives in the area for his suggestions.

Facebook. There are now 162 persons on the Bondurant Facebook site. We need to encourage these people to join and become active in BFA.

Newsletters on the BFA website. Marcelle brought up the idea again of locking the back issues of the newsletter from persons who are not current members. The newsletters are presently open for viewing by anyone.

David mentioned that the only reason to belong to the group was good will. If our newsletters are locked, the only people who would view them are those who pay the $20 yearly dues. It was also mentioned that if the issues are locked, the password would have to be changed yearly. *

Membership. Invoices sent in prior years have brought in members. It is an easy way to join or renew, since the envelope include the membership form.

Amy mentioned that e-mailing the newsletters would have saved BFA money, because there would be no printing or postage cost. E-mailing notifications for renewing membership was also mentioned in order to save money.

E-mail. Many members have posted their e-mail addresses. These could be used for renewal reminders.

Changes in the BFA website. David mentioned that current events draw people to the website, so he is going to add Bob Bondurant's video to show on the site. He was going to add the "Lawless" site to the BFA website.

David also mentioned Clint Bondurant's historical research, with Bondurant, WY, and stories he has collected from other members; Eugenie and her acting career; and Karen Hamm's post card collection. We need to keep the website current, with events or human interest stories along with past history to attract all family members.

Meeting times, and review: Amy brought up the idea of having more time for general meetings. This year felt rushed, because we had a limited time to use the meeting room.

She mentioned she needed more time to present the DNA studies, and other presentations which come up at the last minute. Someone should have manned the area leading to the meeting room where sign-in-sheets, name labels and membership envelopes were located.

Bonnie Marks volunteered to do it this year, but this should be arranged ahead of time.

Charges 2012: The largest expense was rental of the meeting room - $400, less donations, left a balance of $230.

Dues: Dues will remain $20 per year, but encourage more members to receive their newsletters by e-mail.

* BFA NEWSLETTER ARCHIVE

David has written "I have placed the BFA Newsletter Archive in my Dropbox. The idea is that I will password protect the archive, and then give the password out annually when membership is renewed."

BENJAMIN BONDURANT GRAVEYARD

Thanks to Thomas R. Bondurant, 1045 Denison St., Indianapolis, IN 46241, for a near-current report on the resting place of Benjamin Bondurant near Martin, TN. “It is in good shape. The old oak tree is hanging in there, don’t know how much longer,” he added.

This is one of the Bondurant tombstones found in Longwood Cemetery, Bedford, VA, and photographed during our BFA visit there.

Here is Charles’ pedigree:

Presumed son Littleberry Bondurant born about 1768, died about 1833 in Bedford Co., VA. He married there 8 Sept. 1790 to Mary “Nancy” Scott, daughter of James, granddaughter of William Scott I who d. 1794.

Son Jesse Fletcher Bondurant, born about 1797 VA, died before 1870 in Bedford Co. Jesse married Matilda Gibbs, 22 Sept. 1825 in Bedford Co. She was the daughter of Burwell Gibbs and Patsy Merriman.

Their son John Fletcher Bondurant, born June 1834 in Bedford Co., died there 7 March 1910. He married Martha D. Dearing, 21 March 1866 in Bedford Co. She was the daughter of Richard Did Charles and Robbie Bondurant have children?

JAMES SCOTT BONDURANT AND ELIZABETH ANN "Bettie" SNEAD

"Lawless" is bringing out a remarkable amount of family history interest among the Bondurants. This is a sample.

Howard Moss, 11030 Lewistown Road, Ashland, VA 23005, Hmoss@southannastair.com, writes:

I recently went to the movie "Lawless" with my (maternal) grandfather, Frank Bondurant, my uncle and cousins. Afterward I researched our connection to the Franklin Co., VA, Bondurants and found our trees were indeed connected. As I began researching, I signed up on Ancestry.com, and found it to be a very good tool in making our tree. Granted most of the leg work had been done by so many others over the years, and much without the help of the internet.

After I talked to my mother a bit, I found that my grandfather's first cousin Thomas Lee "Tom" Bondurant, died 2001, had tasked himself with developing our tree. I received some research he had done, which included a BFA Newsletter, which allowed me to find your website, some letters of progress he had written to my grandfather, and great uncle James O. Bondurant, and great aunt Dorothy Shirley, and his tree which included many names and dates I didn't find on Ancestry.com.

With that information my tree exploded from my great, great, great grandfather James Scott Bondurant (1803-1880) after he married my 3x great grandmother Elizabeth "Bettie" Snead. I am quite certain James Scott's father was Littleberry Bondurant, and moreover certain his father was Joel Bondurant I (1742-1784), though some research suggests Littleberry was the son of John Peter II, and I even saw one that suggested Peter Jacob.

According to his research, Tom also believed Joel was the father of Littleberry. Even though Jean Pierre started out near Richmond it seems to me most of his descendants moved west, concentrating mainly in Bedford Co., VA.

Apparently my 2x great grandfather Thomas Francis Bondurant moved from Bedford to Richmond at some point which [is] where my (immediate) tree is concentrated.

Frank and James both visited the site of John Pierre Bondurant a few years ago while James was in town. Unfortunately, we lost James a couple of months ago. I did see the mention in your newsletter, thank you. I have not been out to the site myself but I think I will make the trip one day and share it with my wife and kids.

I was interested in the BFA meeting in Bedford this year, unfortunately I found it too late and had plans that weekend. I'm going to mention it to Frank. He has been interested in the research Tom did, and I've been continuing. I also requested to join the Facebook group.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Howard's is an interesting, though not thoroughly proved, lineage. The Sneads were VA Quakers, with Evan and Elizabeth Henderson Snead the parents of Israel Snead I (1780-1844) who married Nancy Bondurant (1784-1847). Nancy is posited as the daughter of Joel Bondurant I (1772-1784) and O'Brien, and granddaughter of John Bondurant and Sarah Rachel Taylor.

Gabriel Snead and Sophia Smith were the parents of Elizabeth Ann "Bettie" Snead, born 1838, who became the 2nd wife of James Scott

Bondurant 6 Jan. 1863 in Liberty, VA. James Scott was then 60, and Bettie 25. They had 5 children:

William Clement "Willie" (1863-1933)

George Henry born 1866

Nancy S. "Nannie" (1868-1936)

Charles (1872 - bef. 1925)

Thomas Francis (abt. 1874 - 1913).

"Willie" and Nora Mae Cassidy Bondurant had a family of 9, some of whom died young (Peter, Frederick, & Albert). They lived in PA.

James Scott II (1889-1954)

Emma (1893-1959)

Nancy Mae born 1893

Michael "Mitch" (1900-1981)

John C. (1904-1919)

Ruth Love (1908-1992).

George Henry and Frances Ann Turner Bondurant were parents of 3 children:

Elizabeth born 1891

George F. born 1893

Alonzo born 1895.

Nannie and George Wyatt Mays were the parents of three children:

William Scott Mays

George Edward Mays

Kenneth Ward Mays.

Charles and Rose ? Bondurant were parents of only one known child:

Madeline P. "Lena" born July 1893 VA.

Thomas Francis Bondurant married Laura Frances C. Binns (1868-1952), and had 4 children:

Elizabeth Clarke (1900-1953)

Carrol Francis Oliver (1903-1977)

Horace (1906-1966)

Robert Eugene (1909-1986).

Horace Bondurant and Annie Vernelle Baughan married 1925 in Richmond, VA, and were parents of:

Dorothy Delma

Thomas Lee (1929-2001).

Robert Eugene Bondurant and Frances Montine ? were parents of:

Frank McGuire "Frankie" who died 2006

John Thomas

Caroline.

From Mr. Moss' letter I'm unable to place his family among the descendants of James Scott II. Perhaps he already has the information needed to connect them to one of the families mentioned above.

He, and other researchers, need to be aware that the middle names generously supplied in the 1920s by a Bondurant descendant to Jean Pierre's sons, are fictitious. There was no Joseph Augustine, Peter Jacob, or John Peter Bondurant. The men were named simply Joseph, Peter and John Bondurant. Legal signatures prove these extra names to be fiction.

DAVID GARRETT BONDURANT

President David Bondurant responded to Bill Siebenthaler's inquiry:

"Your family story sounds a little like mine. My great great grandfather David Garrett Bondurant moved from Buckingham Co., VA, to Downing, MO in about 1854. He also had slaves. They farmed in the Downing area. My great grandfather, James David Bondurant, moved from their farm in Downing into Kirksville, MO, where they founded the Palace Bakery which was operated by him and his sons William Pearl and James David Bondurant, Jr.

William Pearl Bondurant was my grandfather, and my father William George Bondurant was also a partner in Palace Bakery and Royal Crown Bottling Company in Kirksville, until they closed in about 1969."

LEWIS BONDURANT & FANNIE RICHARDS

Mr. Bill Siebenthaler, 269 Orchard St., Alba, TX 75410, 903/497-2995 is the great, great, great grandson of Joel Richards and wife Lucy who moved from Rocky Mount, Franklin Co., VA, with their children and families to St. Charles Co., MO in the early 19th Century. One daughter was Frances Owens “Fannie” Richards, born about 1824 VA, died 22 April 1880.

“Joel and Lucy Richards came to Missouri in wagons bringing 30 slaves with them. In 1933 this farm was said to have been held by one family longer than any other farm in the county – over 100 years. The slaves’ burying ground was located north of the house, “ wrote Mr. Siebenthaler.

“The farm was also known as the ‘Dwyer Place.’ I remember the family cemetery on the old home place from my early years, and recently went back. There are the graves of Lewis and Fanny Bondurant along with several other Bondurant markers in the yard.”

Children of Lewis and Frances O. R. Bondurant were:

John B., born 5 Dec. 1855 MO, died 6 June 1915 St. Charles Co., MO, he married Ella Frances Darnell and had two sons Albert Clarkston & Jesse Fielding

Sarah F. “Sally” born about 1857 MO

Susanna “Susan” born Sept. 1859 MO

David born about 1862 MO

Edward R.

Fanny

Shadrach M. who apparently inherited the farm, and left it to daughters Sally, Jane, and Abigail. His wife was Sally ?

FRENCH LINEAGES

Serge Bondurant, sergealphonse.bondurand@orange.fr, shared information on descendants of several Bondurand/Bondurant lines in the Genolhac area of France. Ours was not the only one.

Gen. VI, 1. Anthoyne Bondurand/t, son of Jehan Bondurant (V), hotel-keeper of Genolhac, was born about 1485 at Malilheres or Genolhac, and died 16 Sept. 1558, from M. Corbier's royal notary records.

Anthoyne married Jehanne Deleuze, and had 6 children. Information from death certificate donation of son Antoine called "Fillet" Bondurant, (AD34-2e95/229-NR Pierre Corbier).
