2013 Bondurant Family Association Annual Meeting
Bondurant School of High Performance Driving
Chandler, AZ
November 15-16, 2013

We are pleased to announce the 2013 BFA Annual Meeting, November 15 & 16 in Chandler, AZ. Our hosts are Pat & Bob Bondurant. They are putting on a very special event for their Bondurant cousins.

We will stay at the Wild Horse Pass Hotel & Casino, 5040 Wild Horse Pass Blvd., Chandler, AZ 85048 (<http://www.wildhorsepass.com>) where you will receive a special price of $149 for Friday/Saturday and $129 for weekdays. Please call 520-796-4900 and ask for the Bondurant Rate (price based upon availability so make your reservation early).

The BFA meeting starts on Friday evening, November 15 at 6:00 pm at the Bondurant School event center with Dinner and a Meet Your Kin gathering.

On Saturday morning at 9:30am, we will meet again at the Bondurant School event center for our Annual Business Meeting and a genealogical presentation followed by lunch.

On Saturday afternoon, there will be a driver's course for all interested participants. The event will include: Timed Autocross, Lead and Follow, Accident Avoidance Simulator and Hot Laps.

Here's a description of each --

Timed Autocross: The autocross is a mini road course set up on an asphalt paddock with white lines and cones. Competitors negotiate this course by practicing good braking and car control. Each driver will have the opportunity for practice runs before they are timed. The overall fastest time will be announced at the conclusion of the program.

Lead and Follow: Everyone has an opportunity to drive on a real racetrack. A Bondurant instructor will lead small groups at a time. Each person drives at their own comfort level, and as the confidence of the drivers build, the instructor allows the speed to build. The student will learn how to drive the "racing line" of the track, and will also learn about proper braking points and cornering techniques.

Accident Avoidance Simulator: Our accident simulator is a state-of-the-art device which allows the instructor to change traffic lights as drivers enter the zone where they will need to make split-second decisions for lane changes and braking.

Hot Laps: Buckle up and hold on for the ride of your life! An experienced professional instructor will do the driving as guests experience the road course the way real race drivers do: at top speed! When they leave the driving to the instructors, Bondurant guests fly around the course faster than they would dare to drive themselves!

On Saturday evening at 5:30 pm, a closing dinner will be held at the School as our annual meeting draws to a close.

Please fill out the attached reservation form and either email or mail it to Lindsey Bates (lbates@bondurant.com), PO Box 51980, Phoenix, AZ 85076. The three meals, driver's course, and Bondurant School hat & shirt are offered for an amazing $75. This is tremendous opportunity for your family to get to experience the Bondurant School along with meeting other Bondurant relatives from all over the country.

The Meeting Reservation Form is easily detached, and on page 19.

We Need Your DNA!

If you are a male with the Bondurant surname, and haven't done the genetic test, we need you to take advantage of this offer. All you have to do is swab your mouth with their Q-tip, and send it in. Painless! Your DNA sample will help confirm which son of Jean Pierre you descended from. ****

■ Avec sa magnifique piste de 3,150 km, le circuit de Lédenon attire aujourd'hui des compétiteurs de l'Europe entière.

AUTO / MOTO Le 16 juin 1973 naissait la piste gardoise

Le circuit de Lédenon, la quarantaine vrombissante

Inspiré par l'initiative de Paul Ricard, Jean-Claude Bondurand a réussi il y a quarante ans à donner naissance à son propre circuit. Chapeau !

Pris d'assaut par les motards du championnat de France de Superbike ce week-end, le circuit de Lédenon ne s'offre que de rares instants de répit. De compétitions autos et motos en essais ou entraînements d'ordre privé, on y tourne en rond plus de 300 jours par an. La rançon de la gloire pour cette piste qui épouse les reliefs de ce coin de garrigue si judicieusement qu'on s'y précipite aujourd'hui de l'Europe entière.

Une affaire familiale

Très officiellement baptisé le 16 juin 1973, le circuit fête ainsi aujourd'hui ses quarante d'années d'existence. Quatre décennies durant lesquelles ses infrastructures n'ont cessé de se moderniser, de se sécuriser pour répondre à l'évolution des sports mécaniques de haut niveau.

À la barre, Sylvie Bondurand et ses trois enfants poursuivent ce travail au quotidien, parfois même sept jours sur sept. Car le circuit de Lédenon a de tout temps été une affaire de famille. Une incroyable aventure initiée par Jean-Claude Bondurand "père" à l'aube des années 70.

« Pas si sorcier que ça »

Jean-Claude Bondurand

Celui qui était alors un jeune avocat niçois eut l'idée saugrenue de bâtir un circuit automobile. Sans le moindre complexe, ni la mesure de la colossale entreprise à laquelle il s'attelait... « Paul Ricard venait de faire le sien au Castellet. Je me suis dit, pourquoi n'en ferais-je pas autant ! Cela ne me paraissait pas si sorcier qu'on voulait bien me le dire. Après tout, qu'était-ce donc qu'un circuit sinon une simple portion de route ? », s'en amuse encore aujourd'hui le paisible retraité, qui a depuis longtemps passé les rennes du circuit à son épouse.

Sans avoir recours au moindre financement extérieur ou à de quelconques soutiens, sinon celui de sa compagne, Jean-Claude Bondurand se lancera ainsi pendant plus de deux ans dans la construction de "son" circuit... Et pratiquement de ses propres mains ! « C'était folklorique. J'avais racheté un vieux bulldozer aux Domaines, avec lequel je venais gratter et déplacer la caillasse à tout moment. Avec Sylvie, nous y passions nos soirées, nos week-ends... » Pour la majorité des observateurs de l'époque, le projet relevait de l'utopie et semblait voué à l'échec. A tort ! C'était il y a 40 ans.

Hummeldorf Names First-Team Academic; All American Bondurant Third-Team.

Annapolis, Md. Recent Naval Academy graduates Jackson Hummeldorf and Ben Bondurant were named to the 2013 Capital One Academic All-America Division I men’s at-large team, the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) announced June 6, 2013.

Bondurant, a 2013 graduate from Atlanta, GA, becomes the third member of the Navy men’s swimming and diving team to earn academic all-America honors over the last five years, and the first since Alex Buck garnered the accolade in the spring of 2010. A first-team academic all-district selection as a Junior and Senior, Bondurant was named to the Patriot League All-Academic Team in each of the past three seasons.

He also earned First-Team All-Patriot League honors in 2011, 2012, and 2013 for his performance in the pool, winning three individual and three relay events at the 2013 league championship, while totaling five wins and three second-place finishes in the eight individual events he competed in at the meet over the last three years. Bondurant also competed in the 2013 U.S.Olympic Team Trials. The Ocean Engineering major graduated this spring with a cumulative grade-point average of 3.45. He received Navy Submarines for his service assignment.

Navy’s seven Capital One Academic All-America honors this year gives the Naval Academy 93 selections all-time, with 60 of them coming since the 1999-2000 academic year. The seven academic All-America awards are the most won by the Naval Academy in school history, surpassing the record of six set four times in the last six years.

In order to have a good history of the cemetery, if you know someone buried there without a stone, please let us know so we can add the name to our list. Obituaries of the deceased without headstones would be very helpful," they added.

MOSELEY - BONDURANT - GLOVER

Thanks to Judy Tanner, jtanner@gmail.com, for adding to the information printed in #97.

I have some information on the heirs mentioned in the 1868 will of Joseph Bondurant, son of Edward Bondurant and Magdalene Moseley. Joseph Bondurant and his wife Elizabeth Moseley did not have any children. They were also cousins, for Elizabeth was the daughter of Thomas Smith Moseley and Magdalene Guerrant. Joseph's mother Magdalene Verreuil Moseley and Elizabeth's father Thomas Smith Moseley were siblings.

In the newsletter you asked about Mary, the wife of Joseph B. Glover. I have her listed as Mary M. Nelson, born 1824 KY, daughter of Mary Ann Moseley, born 30 March 1787 Buckingham Co., VA, and her 2nd husband Joseph Nelson (1785-1854) who married 10 Sept. 1820 in Montgomery Co., KY.

Mary Ann Moseley's first husband was William Thompson. She was the daughter of Thomas Smith Moseley and Magdalene Guerrant.

Joseph B. Glover was a son of Peter Guerrant Glover and Martha Moseley, another daughter of Thomas Smith Moseley and Magdalene Guerrant.

About Magdalene V. Moseley's middle name. I believe it was Verreuil, not Veril, after her great grandmother Magdalene Verreuil (1683-1731), who was the daughter of Moise/Moyse Verreuil and Magdalene Prodhomme. The Verreuil family came to VA in 1700 on the PETER AND ANTHONY as did Jean Pierre Bondurant.

Magdalene Verreuil married 1st Antoine Trabue about 1704 in VA, and later Pierre Chastain, both Huguenot families of Manakintown, VA.

Judy added later, Magdalene Verreuil Moseley and Thomas Smith Moseley were two of 13 known children of Lt. Robert Peter Moseley (1732-1804) and Mary Magdalene Guerrant (1740-1826), see #50, page 10.

Mary M. Nelson Glover was born 1824 in Montgomery Co., KY, died there in 1904. She was buried in Machpelah Cemetery, Mount Sterling, KY.

Clint Bondurant, wyoing1953@earthlink.net, also filled in the data on Joseph B. Glover and Mary E. Nelson.

My first thought was that Mary was related to Joseph somehow, it would have been through the Moseley side of the family. I was able to confirm Mary's maiden name as Nelson by 5 of the 9 children born to her. My guess is that Joseph B. Glover was an overseer or hired man for Joseph Bondurant. It also crossed my mind that Joseph B. Glover's middle might be Bondurant, but no proof of that.

The Glover's children were:

Martha E. born 5 Jan. 1846, Mt. Sterling, Montgomery Co., KY, died 30 Oct. 1928, Louisville, Jefferson Co., KY

Peter G. born about 1848, moved to MO prior to 1900, no further information

Joseph, born 1850, died 1888, buried in Mt. Sterling City Cemetery, Ky.

Ella D., born 1851, died 1860, buried in Mt. Sterling City Cemetery, Ky.

Robert W., born 24 May 1853 possibly Montgomery Co., KY.

Thomas W., born 11 Jan. 1857, Montgomery Co., KY

Virgil, born 29 July 1858, Montgomery Co., KY

Edwin B., in 1860 census but no further information

Mary E., born 28 Aug. 1861 Montgomery Co., KY.

ROBERT HUGHES, JR.

Mr. William McCallum, wmccallum@bham.r.com, asked if this man was a descendant of Joseph Taylor Hughes, born 1835, who married Sally E. Bondurant, born 1841, and had a son Bondurant Hughes, born 1864, who married Jemima Latimer.

Editor's Note: Joseph Taylor Hughes was born ca. 1835 MO, and his wife Sally E. Bondurant, born ca. 1841 in MO. She was the daughter of Charles Palmore Bondurant (1803-1885) and Caroline Eliza Smith (1809-1886).

Six children were born to the Hughes:

Wilson, born ca. 1858

Bessie, born ca. 1861

Bondurant, born ca. 1864

Juanetta, born ca. 1867

Catherine, born ca. 1870

Leo, born ca. 1881, died 1930.

We have records of descendants only of Bondurant Hughes, who married Jemima Latimer. Their three children were:

Latimer, died 1959

George B.

Dewey (1898-1965).

Latimer Hughes married Mary Emerson, and had a son Charles L. Hughes who married Helen E. Hocum [sic], and had one son Lawrence L. Hughes, born 1945.

Has anyone more information on Latimer or Charles L. Hughes and their descendants? Or who the parents of Robert Hughes, Jr. are? Were they connected to the Bondurants?

FRANCOISE BONDURANT, Jean Pierre's sister

We descendants of Jean Pierre have spent years following his path from Genolhac, Gard, France, to Virginia. But we have also known for years that Jean Pierre had a younger sister who remained in France. Both their parents and grandparents were Huguenots when the children were born, but with the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes in 1685, the Bondurants recanted and 7 year old Jean Pierre, heir to the estate, was rebaptized as a Catholic.

Both parents died before the children were teenagers, they lived with a cousin, Andre Bondurant, an apothecary, and at one time Mayor of the town of Genolhac, in the house on le grand Rue.

What Became of Francoise?

No marriage license, or entry in the Genolhac Catholic church register has yet been found, for we presumed she had married someone from her home town.

It was by accident that we learned that Francoise had married Raymond Masson, and was living in Genolhac when news of the death of her husband at St. Amboix, Gard, in April 1703, was sent to her. Raymond died in a clash with the King's troops while fighting with the Camisards (the Huguenot faction). Whether there were children, we don't yet know. – We may have French Masson cousins – keep looking!

THE SALLEES

by Mary Bondurant Warren

Jean Pierre and Ann's daughter Francoise Bondurant became the wife of Jean Pierre Sallee of Manakintown. Their children are also Bondurant descendants, but few til now have participated in the BFA. Their descendants have an interesting ancestry, and this may help some of them learn what difficulty their Sallees went through to establish the family in the New World.

In BFA issue 12, Richard Pierson Sallee presented a brief overview of the Sallee family history, and his line of descent from Peter and Frances' son Joseph Sallee.

ABRAHAM SALLEIn France - St. Martin's, Isle of Re, Parish of Aunis, France.

Jean Salle and his wife Marie became parents about 1675 of a son Abraham. At this time the Catholics and Protestants in France were at peace. When, why, and how Abraham fled to England I do not know. Abraham may have married Olive Perrault during their stay in England, and they came first to New York, and then to Virginia. At least 6 of their 7 children were born in the Manakintown area. Birthplace and date of daughters Judith & Marianne is unknown.

Olive apparently died prior to 1718 when Abraham wrote his will. In it he left "my estate in England and France to be divided equally among my children." Whether this was wishful thinking, or he actually had a foreign estate remains to be proved. Children:

Judith, no further information

Abraham II, born 3 Sept. 1700, died about 1780, married Magdalene Amonet, 5 children.

Jacob born about 1701

Isaac born about 1803

Jean Pierre/Peter born about 1705 in Manakintown, and married Francoise Bondurant.

Guillaume/William, born July 1706 in Henrico Co., VA., married Elizabeth Givaudan, 3 children.

Olive Magdalene, may have married an Agee

JEAN PIERRE or PETER SALLEE

I don't have the date that Peter married Francoise Bondurant, but it would have been about 1733 in Henrico Co., VA, soon after Jean Pierre Bondurant's family moved to their new land near present Midlothian, VA.

Peter received by his father's will, land which bordered "the French Line" established by the Virginia government when they set aside 10,000 acres at Manakintown for the immigrant French.

Peter's own will was signed 24 Dec. 1750, and proved 27 Nov. 1752 in Cumberland Co., VA, just upriver from Manakintown. The will disclosed that Peter owned 400 acres on Troublesome Creek in Albemarle Co., VA, which was to be divided between his sons Abraham and Isaac, the two eldest.

Francoise/Frances Bondurant Sallee, his widow, died about Nov. 1777 in Powhatan Co., VA, leaving a will. Their children in birth order:

 1795, Judith Pankey Powhatan Co., VA.

Judith, born 25 Oct. 1749 Cumberland Co., VA. Did she marry and have children?
 She was not mentioned in her mother's will, nor was she baptized like the other children at King William Parish church.

It is interesting to see that over these first two generations, many of the children of Abraham Sallee married spouses who were from other Huguenot families of Manakintown. This seemed to continue, as some wed their Sallee cousins, both in Virginia and elsewhere. "Blood is thicker than water."

Of the five children of Jean Pierre and Ann Tanner Bondurant, only Frances and Peter Sallee seemed to have lived most of their lives in the Manakintown area. Sallee Creek, a tributary of James River, retains their name.

The original Huguenot reserve, 10,000 acres of land, lay in Henrico Co., VA, on the south side of James River. Henrico was subdivided, with the eastern portion retaining the name, and the Manakin area being cut off into newly created Goochland, with land on both sides of James River. Goochland was soon subdivided with land on the south of the river formed into Cumberland Co.

Cumberland Co. soon lost the Manakin area when Powhatan Co. was formed from its eastern portion. Moving westward the next county was Albemarle, which was given land on both sides of James River. Its lands on south of the James River was cut off to form Buckingham Co., VA, and it was here that most of Jean Pierre and Ann's children settled and died, all except except Frances and Peter Sallee.

But you can see the Sallee children, following their Bondurant cousins up the James River, then moving into Kentucky Co., VA, which ultimately became the state of Kentucky, and from there scattering to the south and west.

In the data base we have further information on these of Peter Sallee's children:

Generation 2	Generation 3	Generation 4
Isaac	Henry	Rhoda Moses Edward Isaac Huffman William Henry
Jacob Bondurant	George Edward Maxey Abishai Henry Nancy	Thomas Moseley Robert E. Martha Ann Sallee Reynolds
Joseph	John Joseph, Jr.	John Thomas G. Edward Maxey
