APRIL 1994 - NUMBER 23

PLANNING MEETING APRIL 29-30th

With just six months until we meet in Lynchburg, VA, for our BFA Annual Meeting -- October 21-22-23 -- won't it be great to get together again?

In order to get plans and arrangements underway, Wayne and I plan to be in Lynchburg on April 29-30. Several of you live nearby and we are hoping as many as possible will meet us at the Hilton Hotel Lobby, 10:30 a.m. on April 30th, to help in planning activities to make the October meeting successfully enjoyable for everyone.

Of course anyone with ideas or suggestions is invited to express them to us by mail or phone to the address below.

For those who inquired about the next tour to Genolhac, France, there are no plans underway for 1994.

It was encouraging that several responded to our last membership enrollment effort. We will anticipate seeing new as well as familiar faces at our October meeting.

MRS. JEANNE E. BONDURANT MILLER

Mrs. Eleanor BonDurant Hull, 7023 Wicker Ave., Hammond, IN 46323 wrote of the death of her sister Jeanne on March 3, 1994. Jeanne made her home at 1627 Turtle Creek Ct., South Bend, IN 46637. These ladies were granddaughters of Phillip E. BonDurant, and daughters of Alfred C. BonDurant of South Bend.

Mrs. Miller was born in South Bend, and on Feb. 14, 1948 she married Dale G. Miller, who survives her, with their two daughters Judith Ann Sedam, and Lori Jane Miller, both of South Bend, and son Jeffrey L. Miller of Osceola, and three grandchildren.

Mrs. Miller was buried in Highland Cemetery.

The sympathy of members of the Bondurant Family Association go to those she left behind.

RESPONSE TO OUR GREEN QUESTIONNAIRE HAS BEEN GOOD!

Thanks to many of you, and a number of non-members, we have gained a generation of Bondurants for our family tree. We have also reached a number of persons who have since joined our Association.

We appreciate your cooperation, and are delighted to expand our "family circle."

If you haven't completed the green form and returned it, please do so. We're grouping the various families as best we can, to learn who is kin to whom. Remember, we're going to divide up the family, so we can research and publish the lineage of Jean Pierre's five children. You don't want to be missing, do you!

CELIA BONDURANT AND JOSEPH FUQUA

Ms. Marjorie Farley Bruce, 8205 Chipplegate Dr., Richmond, VA 23227 wants to know the parents of CELIA BONDURANT who became the wife of Joseph Fuqua ca. Nov. 1782.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Joseph Fuqua is said to have been born May 4, 1756 in Bedford Co., and on Nov. 13, 1782 married Celia, born Dec. 23, 1762, also in Bedford Co. Their marriage was performed by Rev. John W. Holt, and recorded in a Minister's Return, Deed Book 7, page 342, Bedford Co., VA. They were said to have been parents of a dozen children!

Celia died March 28, 1847 in Bedford, and she and Joseph were buried in the Fuqua Family Cemetery on Orange St., Bedford, VA.

The late Mrs. Eula Haskew of Texas gave me Xerox copies of pages taken from a history of the Fuqua family of Virginia, from whom she descended.

GUILLAUME FOUQUET and JANE EYRE were progenitors of this family in VA. Their son RALPH FUQUA married PRISCILLA OWEN, and they were parents of L. JOSEPH FUQUA b. 5-4-1756, d. 5-4-1829 Bedford Co., VA, who m. Celia Bondurant b. 12-23-1762, d. 3-28-1847. Joseph enlisted in the Revolution in 1776 for two years. After Joseph's death the widow Celia stated in her pension application (W-7345) that he enlisted "under Capt. Gross Scruggs on the 22nd day of February 1776, and served two years ... that he was at the battle of Brandywine." Among affidavits in her pension file was the deposition of WILLIAM LEFTWICH, Celia's son-in-law, who stated that "he became acquainted with Joseph Fuqua and his present widow Celia Fuqua (whose maiden name was Bondurant) as early as the year 1784."

Joseph's will was signed April 4, 1829, and left generous bequests to his widow and children. Witnesses were Samuel Harris, JAMES BUNDRUM, and Thomas Fisher. His will was proved June 22, 1829, with executors sons Abram and Hezekiah Fuqua, and son-in-law William Leftwich. Some of Joseph's children joined the colony of Stephen F. Austin in what became Texas. Children of Joseph and Celia Bondurant Fuqua were: Silas, Jacob, Abram, Ephraim, Mary LEFTWICH, Benjamin, Milly POWELL, Fanny RITCHIE, Hezekiah, and Noah. Names of their two additional children are unknown.

Joseph Fuqua and John Hewitt were the first deacons of Timber Ridge Baptist Church, founded by Joseph's brother Rev. Isham Fuqua in 1805. A later pastor was Rev. William Leftwich, husband of Joseph's daughter Mary Fuqua. The church was also known as the Lowry Meeting House, and was located on land purchased from "William Lowry.
